

SEVEN CHINESE AND ONE WHITE MAN KILLED IN EXPLOSION AT GIANT

MIXING HOUSE AT WORKS DESTROYED.

GIANT POWDER WORKS, SCENE OF THE EXPLOSION THIS MORNING

Remarkable Escape of a Wounded Chinese—Loss to the Company Will Amount to $10,000—No One Can Tell How the Accident Happened

SOBRANTE, July 14.—The mixing house of the Giant Powder Company at this place was wiped off the face of the earth today by an explosion which took place at 7:40 o'clock.

Eight human beings lost their lives and one man was injured. One of the dead was a white man, the others were Chinese.

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

All of the dead were blown practically to atoms. The injured Chinese was blown out into the bay for a distance of about thirty feet, and then walked to the shore, having sustained only a few slight injuries.

THE DEAD.

The dead are as follows:

WONG WAY.	CHING GING.
AH QUONG.	BOCK SOOE.
AH TOI.	MAH WAN.

AH FOOK.

WILLIAM H. DWYER, white, foreman of the plant.

THE INJURED.

The injured Chinese was Wang Hea.

THE LOSS.

The building was about one hundred and fifty by one hundred feet in dimensions and was composed of frame with sheet iron roofing. The loss is variously estimated, but will probably amount to $10,000.

How the accident happened no one can tell.

CANNOT IDENTIFY DEAD.

All those who might be able to give information on the subject are dead, and more than that there is nothing of them left by means of which the remains can be identified.

The nearest individual to the scene of the explosion was the injured Chinese Wang Hea.

He was outside near the mixing plant at the time of the explosion. He felt the effects of it, but had no idea as to what had occasioned it.

His escape was a most miraculous one, for the reason that after having been forced through the air by the effect of the explosion when examined by the surgeons it was found that he had sustained only some slight scratches on the face, some burns on the right hand and a fractured right arm.

The building destroyed is one of the detached structures forming the plant of the Giant Powder Works, of which there are about thirty in number.

SWEEPED CLEAN.

It was swept out of existence in the twinkling of an eye as effectually as if it had been razed to the ground by an all-consuming flame. Building, stock, machinery, everything, save a dismantling engine, took wings, and the wreck of the motor left behind is valueless even as junk.

The force of the explosion tore up the small railroad track upon which cars are loaded and hauled to the shipping plant near Giant Station.

HORSE KILLED.

At the time of the explosion there was a car standing near the mixing plant waiting to receive its load. Attached to this was a horse. This animal was instantly killed, part of his remains having been blown out to sea.

BLOWN OVER HILL.

One of the Chinamen, who was standing near the car at the time was also blown over the hill overlooking the bay, and part of his remains were found on the beach below.

There is not enough left of the eight human beings to fill a child's basket.

The thunder of the explosion was heard in all the cities around

THE ARREST.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 13.—George D. Collins of San Francisco was arrested here last night on a warrant secured under the telegraphic instructions from Judge Lawlor of San Francisco, charging him with perjury committed on June 30, in having sworn that he had not married Charlotte Newman on May 15, 1889, as she averred that statement to be untrue.

Collins fled from San Francisco, accompanied by Mrs. Collins, whom he married in Chicago recently, and the local police were telegraphed to and requested to arrest him on a charge of bigamy.

This offense is not extraditable, and Chief Dinan of San Francisco was informed to that effect.

THE INSTRUCTIONS.

Instructions were then sent to arrest him on the charge of perjury. Chief Langley went before Judge Compton at his residence and secured a warrant upon which Collins was arrested when returning to his hotel tonight in company with his wife. He stated at arrest that the charge was evidently a trumped up one, and he intended to fight extradition to the end.

Collins and wife were registered at a hotel here as Mr. and Mrs. Branesburg, of Southampton.

He has engaged a local barrister to fight the case and application for habeas corpus will be made today.

FAIR PLAY.

"I am here," he said, "in a country where I can get fair play. I have been the victim of a vile conspiracy. My marriage with this lady has been perfectly regular and valid. My po-

WITTE NAMED BY THE EMPEROR

M. WITTE.

He Will be the Leading Peace En- voy for the Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 13.—Emperor Nicholas has announced the appointment of M. Witte to be chief plenipotentiary representing the Russian government in the peace negotiations to be conducted next month in the United States. The appointment, which was signed after midnight, clothes M. Witte with plenary powers.

WITTE WILL SAIL.

Official information of the designation of M. Witte to head the mission was forwarded to Washington this morning. M. Witte will take passage on the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which sails from Cherbourg July 26.

PEACE PARTY PLEASED.

It has been intimated that Japan objected to certain utterances to M. Muraviev reflecting upon the Japanese nation; inquiries made here have failed to obtain any confirmation of the rumor.

The peace party is overjoyed at the fact that negotiations have been placed in Witte's hands. It is their firm belief that this not only insures a successful termination of the negotiations, but that M. Witte will secure the best possible terms for his country. Some of the Grand Dukes and Courtiers of the Emperor's Entourage, however, are reported to be furious at M. Witte's selection.

Sergei Witte, the Russian plenipotentiary, may be regarded as the leading liberal statesman of Russia.

For the last thirteen years he has been one of the strongest personalities in the Russian bureaucracy, although his political fortunes suffered a setback when he was compelled to resign the portfolio of Minister of Finance in August, 1903, and again when after being appointed President of the Council of Ministers in the same month, his office gradually lost its importance, until rumors of his intention to resign and go abroad had been persistently circulated.

WORKED HIS WAY.

Witte is about 55 years of age, and "worked his way up" from a position of an underpaid railroad clerk, who occasionally acted as porter, to that of the leading statesman of Russia, in spite of the fact that his enemies are numerous and include some of the most powerful men in Russia. A man of large stature, big limbed and muscular, standing over six feet high, Witte has the reputation of being harsh to his subordinates, but his honesty and ability have never been doubted even by his worst enemies. He was created a Count in 1891.

KNOWS THE SITUATION.

M. Witte is thoroughly familiar with the Far Eastern question in all its bearings. He understands the Japanese position and fully realized before the war that an aggressive policy being pursued under the lead of Viceroy Alexieff and M. Bezobrazoff, president of the Yalu Timber Company, and the coterie of adventurers connected with them, would drive Japan to take up the sword.

WAS ONCE MINISTER.

At one time Witte talked over the situation with the Marquis Ito, president of the Japanese Privy Council, and one of the leading statesmen of Japan.

Practically it was Witte's disapproval of Russia's Far Eastern political policy and the creation of a vice-royalty in the Far East, which caused his downfall as Minister of Finance.

TORNADO INJURES MANY PEOPLE. BOMB FACTORY IS CAPTURED.

FAIRFAX, S. D., July 13.—One person was killed and four injured, two probably fatally, by a tornado which swept a portion of the Rosebud reservation today. At least three small towns are known to have been struck by the storm.

Roy McFadden was killed near St. Elmo. Eight persons were injured at Herrick and several buildings destroyed. At Burke 6 people were injured, including James Jensen, his wife and baby, the latter two of whom may die.

TWENTY-FOUR LEADERS HANGED.

ODESSA, July 13.—Twenty-four leaders of the recent disturbances here were hanged today in various prisons. Another batch of 27 will be publicly executed upon the arrival here of General Ignatieff, president of the Special Conference for revision of exceptional laws designed for safe-guarding public order.

The battleship Georgi Pobiedonosetz has arrived here with a fresh crew for the purpose of taking the mutineers to Sevastopol for trial by court martial.

Of 202 persons arrested and charged with robbery or incendiarism in connection with the recent riots 74 were acquitted today owing to lack of evidence and 28 were sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment, the time to include the two weeks which they have already passed in prison. The extraordinary outcome of these trials has aroused much comment here. It is openly asserted that it is a political demonstration against the military government and furnishes evidences of the conflict going on between the municipality and the government as the does are elected by the people.

CHARLES M. COGLAN IS DEAD.

SACRAMENTO, July 13.—Charles M. Cogan, who has for many years held the position of Secretary of the State Board of Equalization, died at his residence in this city this forenoon. Mr. Cogan was born at sea and was 57 years of age. He had spent most of his life in California. For a number of years he was in the employ of the Central Pacific Railroad as a train dispatcher. He entered politics and was elected County Clerk. Cogan is survived by a wife and two daughters, one of whom is Mrs. George Kingsbury, wife of the proprietor of the Lick House, San Francisco; the other Mrs. W. H. Devlin of this city. Cogan was prominent in the Masonic order.

FOUR MOSCOW REGIMENTS HAVE MUTINED.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 13.—Rumors are current in this city that four grenadier regiments at Moscow have mutined and at Warsaw yesterday certain officers refused to give the command to their men to fire on people who were making demonstrations.

Not the slightest confirmation, however, is obtainable of these rumors.

IDENTIFY SUICIDE

Youth Who Jumped Into Bay Was B. B. Bowen of Alameda.

The identity of the young man who committed suicide early yesterday morning by leaping from the ferry steamer Oakland into the bay was established this morning. He was Benjamin B. Bowen and lived with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Bowen at 1225 Chestnut street, Alameda.

The cause of the suicide is not known, but it is intimated by friends of the family that the young man had been disappointed in love. The family refuse to discuss the affair.

The identification was made by Robert J. Holmes, a family friend who declares that the coat left on the ferry deck by the suicide was the one last worn by Bowen.

Deceased was the son of George B. Bowen of the firm of Bowen & Whetmore of San Francisco. He was 27 years of age and his friends say that he was not a drinking man and had no bad habits. Bowen was last seen alive by his mother on Tuesday evening when he left the home in Alameda to go to Oakland, so he said.

The young man had recently returned from Raymond a station near Los Angeles Valley, where he had been working some mining property.

HUMMEL IN THE CRIMINAL COURT

NEW YORK ATTORNEY MUST ANSWER FOR CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY.

NEW YORK July 13.—Abraham Hummel, the attorney under indictment on a charge of criminal conspiracy in connection with the Dodge-Morse divorce case, will not be permitted to inspect the minutes of the Grand Jury which returned the indictment.

Denying the application for such permission Judge Davy in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court today declared that on inspecting the testimony before the Grand Jury he was convinced that there was evidence to sustain the indictment.

"I might say," he said, "that there is evidence to warrant continuation. Hummel and Benjamin Stieghardt, another attorney who was indicted jointly, and Charles Dodge were called upon to plead to the indictments against them. Dodge was not in court. Hummel's counsel entered a demurrer.

Justice Davy overruled the demurrer and announced September 10 the date of the beginning of the trial of Hummel and Stieghardt.

FIRE AT SAN LEANDRO

HOME OF JOHN VAN HORN IS BURNED TO THE GROUND.

SAN LEANDRO July 13.—A fire here this afternoon destroyed the home of John Van Horn on San Lorenzo avenue. The fire was caused by a defective fuse. The loss will amount to about $2,500.

ELKS PRIZES

BUFFALO July 13.—Prizes were awarded today as follows: Lodge accompanied by the greatest number of ladies, $500 Bridgeport Conn. Lodge No. 157. Lodge having greatest number in line nearby lodges, barred $300 Blue, Pa. Lodge having greatest number of men in line, home lodges, barred, Rochester first, Lockport second.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following marriage licenses were issued by the County Clerk today: Charles M. Rankel, Oakland. Maria E. Grandadam, Oakland. William W. Werner, Berkeley. Katherine B. Ellis, Berkeley. Frank L. Gibson, Iowa. Emma C. Warren, Berkeley. Miles McKinnon, Oakland. Mary F. Hayden, Oakland. Oscar J. Bullus, Oakland. Edna L. Hicks, Oakland.

BOY IS MISSING.

Mrs. E. C. Reynolds of 322 Raymond avenue, San Francisco reported to Sheriff Barnes this morning that her thirteen-year-old son Dalton had run away from home and had been seen in Oakland and she asked him to arrest the lad and return him to her in case he should be apprehended. She stated that the lad had been enticed away by some other boys and she was afraid that he would get into trouble. A sharp lookout is to be kept for him and if he is found he will be sent home.

FOUND NOT GUILTY.

George Floss Lewis Smith and James Fiddell, accused of tampering with a seal on a freight car in the Southern Pacific yards, were found not guilty this morning by Acting Police Judge Geary and were discharged.

FIRE BREAKS OUT WITH FRESH FURY

Fire Fighters Worn Out and Ask Help From San Jose People.

SAN JOSE July 13.—An urgent call for help comes today from the Mount Hamilton section, the fire east of that mountain having broken out again with fresh fury.

It is now southeast of the Arroyo Valle and is hastening towards the King ranch. The fighters are exhausted, and a rancher rode to Lick Observatory from the scene this forenoon and asked them to telephone to this city for assistance.

The danger to the observatory has long been past but many ranches that have hitherto been believed safe from the flames now seem doomed.

The Bernal Gonzales, Crow Hayes and several other ranches have been burned over and at present the fire is having its own way as the exhausted ranchers are helpless.

HE WANTS MORE ARGUMENT OVER AN ESTATE

Assessor Henry P. Dalton says that the help allowed him in his office is too small for the proper conduct of it, and states that until the law is amended so as to grant him greater facilities in the getting out of his work that he will be compelled to be behind hand with his work and ask for extensions of time from the State Board of Equalization for the finishing up of the rolls.

He says that he is now trying his best to complete the rolls by the 15th of this month, but he does not believe that he will be able to finish them before the 23d.

In regard to the delay Deputy Tom Robinson said this morning: "There is a much larger territory to cover in Alameda county than in San Francisco and more pieces of property yet we have here but four regular deputies and twenty-seven field deputies for four months, whereas in San Francisco the Assessor is allowed thirty-nine regular deputies and one hundred extra field deputies for four months. Of course in San Francisco there is a great deal more personal property than there is here but our force is inadequate to perform the work that it has to do and in consequence our work is greatly behind."

We have ten more rolls this year than last, and the meeting of the next legislature, and as his salary cannot be increased during his term in office it means that it will have to go over for five years from now."

When the case was called this morning Judge Sullivan began the arguments by attacking the right of one court to tie the hand of another in a judicial proceeding before it, excepting under certain conditions, which he claimed do not exist in the present matter. The discussion then became general and after consuming much time and making an argument in support of a motion to dissolve the injunction proceedings Judge Sullivan submitted the matter.

Attorney Shortridge then asked time in which to reply, and the case was finally continued until August 9.

Sullivan's contention in the case was that the Negro proceedings had been before the courts for more than four years and that all of the proceedings were regular and that the matter of partial distribution of the estate was set down for June 24 and that there had been plenty of notice given of the proceedings, and that an injunction could not be asked at this time for such a purpose.

sition before the California courts was due to the activity of the bitter enemies I have made through aggressiveness in the practice of my profession. I have aroused the antagonism of the press by acting as counsel in a number of libel actions against them for which they were made to pay dearly.

"The indictment against me on the charge of bigamy was the climax of a long-standing resentment. The Judge who presided over the drawing of the Grand Jury was a man whom I had impeached before the Government for misconduct in office. Another member of the judiciary had his ax sharpened for me because in the interests of a client I had rebuked him severely for conduct on the bench unbecoming to a Judge. There is another Judge from whom I had appealed many decisions and had upset them, with the result that he accused me of trying to manufacture a record to his discredit. The indictment was secured against me in a star-chamber style, which was most unfair. It is impossible to get a jury in San Francisco which is not prejudiced by the seed sown by those who have arrayed themselves against me, particularly the press.

"The newspapers have maligned me at every opportunity for the past two months. Not content with going after me day in and day out through their news columns, they have had editorials in which they have averred that I have been guilty of improper practices in connection with my profession, that I have even induced Judges to favor my clients irrespective of the cases in which they were concerned. They have stated that such a man as I should be driven from professional life, and that any jury which would be the instrument of procuring such an end would be worthy of the commendation of the people. In other words, the attitude of the press in connection with my case has been one of pure intimidation. I am not a fool nor a knave, and for me to have laid myself open to a charge of bigamy would both convict me of folly and knavery.

"I am not a fugitive from justice—rather a fugitive from injustice. I cannot see that I have taken any other but the proper course. People might say, 'If you are an innocent man, why do you not face the charge in court?' My reply to that is, 'I am an innocent man and cannot get fair play in the courts.' You can understand that it was impossible for me to adopt any alternative but flight although I have no doubt that even if a verdict against me were returned it would be upon an appeal, but the damage would then be done. Both my wife and I have been subjected to a most annoying notoriety. I have too much affection for her to permit a continuance of it longer than I can help. In this connection I might say that I would be devoid of utility of principle as well as of affection for my wife were I to have committed the crime of which I have been charged."

TRIP TO CHICAGO.

"The reason I went to Chicago to get married was that it was the wish of my wife and her mother that the ceremony should be attended by my wife's brother, who lived in the East and who came to Illinois for the purpose. The Grand Jury which indicted me is the product of a strong antagonism directed against the Schmitz administration. Many gentlemen who have been connected with it have been made targets by the conspirators. I was not arrested, and did not require to sneak out of San Francisco. My wife and I left as any other travelers would leave, buying our tickets in the regular way and taking passage overland. I cannot understand why some effort was not made to stop me as I was passing through the various Coast States, because it would have been less difficult to bring me back from a sister State than it would be from foreign soil.

CANADIAN LAW.

"I know sufficient of the Canadian law to realize I am not attempting to minimize the extent of the conspiracy against me, and possibly my enemies in San Francisco will trump up some other charge. They may even charge me with murder or some other exceptionally serious crime, but under our law, if I were extradited for some other offense they could not try me on the charge of bigamy. Some time ago I determined that rather than submit to the persecution to which I was subjected I would leave for some other country. I have long had a desire to come to Canada to practice law, understanding that the advantages in such a new and thriving place are many.

SAYS HE WOULD SHOOT KIDNAPER.

"When I was indicted on the charge of bigamy and attacked in the most degrading and pernicious way, I concluded that now was my opportunity to leave for that country where I knew that justice was administered impartially. I know that the police and loose boards from the floor were forced upwards, and several of them came near striking him, but he managed also to escape unhurt.

PHYSICIANS CALLED.

Soon after the accident, and when it was known that men had been injured, attaches of the company telephoned to San Pablo and to Point Richmond for medical and surgical attendance, and immediately in response Dr. L. A. Martin of San Pablo and Dr. C. L. Abbott of Point Richmond made their appearance.

They found that they had nothing to do save to dress the injuries of Wong Hsa, the Chinaman, whom they placed in a cot in the laboratory.

Although suffering intensely the Chinese bore up with fortitude, and while in the hands of the surgeons, stated to THE TRIBUNE reporter that he had been in the employ of the company for about five years, that he was 37 years of age, and had a wife and child in Canton, China.

DEAD CHINESE.

Of the dead Chinaman scarcely anything is known so far as antecedents is concerned, and even among their associates in the works because they generally were known by numbers and were paid by a common Chinese boss, who received the money from the proprietor of the plant.

THE FOREMAN.

William Dwyer, the foreman of the destroyed plant was said to be about 50 years of age. He had been in the employ of the company about a dozen years, and was looked upon as one of the most careful and competent of their attaches. So far as known he was unmarried.

He lived at the boarding house of the company on the grounds on the east side of the hill which overlooked the scene of the accident, and which escaped without a scratch.

It is generally supposed that his home before becoming connected with the concern was in Ohio, but in the excitement of the moment nobody could tell the name of the town.

CORONER ON SCENE.

As soon as it was known that some employees had met their death Coroner Curry was telephoned and came from Martinez with receptacles in which to receive shreds of the dismembered human beings.

At the time that THE TRIBUNE reporter left the scene the Coroner had not decided as to when he would hold the inquest.

Among the people who were attracted to the scene, and they were principally interested parties in surrounding the powder plants was Rev. E. Nolan, pastor of the Catholic church at San Pablo, of whose congregation a number of the employees of the company are members. He hurried to the scene, hoping that he might be able, in case of necessity to administer the last sacraments of his church to any of its members who might be among the dying. Father Nolan was formerly a resident of Oakland, and his parents are still residing in that place.

THE SUPERINTENDENT.

Frank Roller, superintendent of the plant resides in Oakland and did not arrive on the scene until after the usual time, which was about 8 o'clock this morning.

He therefore knew nothing as to how the accident was occasioned. Speaking on the subject he said:

"I have absolutely no knowledge as to how the accident took place. There is no means of finding it out. The only men who could tell us are dead. There is scarcely anything of them left. The buildings, as you see, is entirely destroyed. Only an engine is left. I think that may be as good as ever. Of course there is a reason for the accident, but nobody knows what it is."

GLAD HE IS ALIVE.

Samuel Gagar, the engineer of the ammonia plant, who was one of the nearest men in adjoining buildings to the mixing plant, said:

"I got to work this morning at the usual hour, about 7 o'clock, and all of a sudden after I had been there perhaps about fifteen or twenty minutes there came an awful sound. I thought my own building and machinery were going to pieces. Boards flew up from the floor and some of them came near striking me. I am glad to say that I am still alive and well."

SECOND EXPLOSION.

This is the second explosion which has taken place at the Giant Powder Works since the plant was moved from Berkeley to this place. The last one happened about a year ago, in which two men were killed.

The effect of the explosion is not visible to any extent upon the employees of the plant in other departments. They go about their work seemingly indifferent in their own behalf, and as if nothing had taken place out of the usual in the ordinary routine of the work of making powder and dynamite.

FIVE DEATHS FROM THE HEAT.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Five deaths from heat were reported up to 11 o'clock today. The temperature was 85 degrees. The weather bureau reported that no rain was in sight.

"The reason I went to Chicago to get married was that it was the wish of my wife and her mother that the ceremony should be attended by my wife's brother, who lived in the East and who came to Illinois for the purpose. The Grand Jury which indicted me is the product of a strong antagonism directed against the Schmitz administration. Many gentlemen who have been connected with it have been made targets by the conspirators. I was not arrested, and did not require to sneak out of San Francisco. My wife and I left as any other travelers would leave, buying our tickets in the regular way and taking passage overland. I cannot understand why some effort was not made to stop me as I was passing through the various Coast States, because it would have been less difficult to bring me back from a sister State than it would be from foreign soil.

CANADIAN LAW.

"I know sufficient of the Canadian law to realize I am not attempting to minimize the extent of the conspiracy against me, and possibly my enemies in San Francisco will trump up some other charge. They may even charge me with murder or some other exceptionally serious crime, but under our law, if I were extradited for some other offense they could not try me on the charge of bigamy. Some time ago I determined that rather than submit to the persecution to which I was subjected I would leave for some other country. I have long had a desire to come to Canada to practice law, understanding that the advantages in such a new and thriving place are many.

SAYS HE WOULD SHOOT KIDNAPER.

"When I was indicted on the charge of bigamy and attacked in the most degrading and pernicious way, I concluded that now was my opportunity to leave for that country where I knew that justice was administered impartially. I know that the police and loose boards from the floor were forced upwards, and several of them came near striking him, but he managed also to escape unhurt.

PHYSICIANS CALLED.

Soon after the accident, and when it was known that men had been injured, attaches of the company telephoned to San Pablo and to Point Richmond for medical and surgical attendance, and immediately in response Dr. L. A. Martin of San Pablo and Dr. C. L. Abbott of Point Richmond made their appearance.

They found that they had nothing to do save to dress the injuries of Wong Hsa, the Chinaman, whom they placed in a cot in the laboratory.

Although suffering intensely the Chinese bore up with fortitude, and while in the hands of the surgeons, stated to THE TRIBUNE reporter that he had been in the employ of the company for about five years, that he was 37 years of age, and had a wife and child in Canton, China.

DEAD CHINESE.

Of the dead Chinaman scarcely anything is known so far as antecedents is concerned, and even among their associates in the works because they generally were known by numbers and were paid by a common Chinese boss, who received the money from the proprietor of the plant.

THE FOREMAN.

William Dwyer, the foreman of the destroyed plant was said to be about 50 years of age. He had been in the employ of the company about a dozen years, and was looked upon as one of the most careful and competent of their attaches. So far as known he was unmarried.

He lived at the boarding house of the company on the grounds on the east side of the hill which overlooked the scene of the accident, and which escaped without a scratch.

It is generally supposed that his home before becoming connected with the concern was in Ohio, but in the excitement of the moment nobody could tell the name of the town.

CORONER ON SCENE.

As soon as it was known that some employees had met their death Coroner Curry was telephoned and came from Martinez with receptacles in which to receive shreds of the dismembered human beings.

At the time that THE TRIBUNE reporter left the scene the Coroner had not decided as to when he would hold the inquest.

Among the people who were attracted to the scene, and they were principally interested parties in surrounding the powder plants was Rev. E. Nolan, pastor of the Catholic church at San Pablo, of whose congregation a number of the employees of the company are members. He hurried to the scene, hoping that he might be able, in case of necessity to administer the last sacraments of his church to any of its members who might be among the dying. Father Nolan was formerly a resident of Oakland, and his parents are still residing in that place.

THE SUPERINTENDENT.

Frank Roller, superintendent of the plant resides in Oakland and did not arrive on the scene until after the usual time, which was about 8 o'clock this morning.

He therefore knew nothing as to how the accident was occasioned. Speaking on the subject he said:

"I have absolutely no knowledge as to how the accident took place. There is no means of finding it out. The only men who could tell us are dead. There is scarcely anything of them left. The buildings, as you see, is entirely destroyed. Only an engine is left. I think that may be as good as ever. Of course there is a reason for the accident, but nobody knows what it is."

GLAD HE IS ALIVE.

Samuel Gagar, the engineer of the ammonia plant, who was one of the nearest men in adjoining buildings to the mixing plant, said:

"I got to work this morning at the usual hour, about 7 o'clock, and all of a sudden after I had been there perhaps about fifteen or twenty minutes there came an awful sound. I thought my own building and machinery were going to pieces. Boards flew up from the floor and some of them came near striking me. I am glad to say that I am still alive and well."

of San Francisco and other places in the States resort to various ruses to bring back a fugitive whom they cannot get in a legitimate way. Sometimes an officer follows a man to a certain point, kidnaps him, puts him on a tugboat and forces him back to the land from whence he fled. Well, all I can say is that such tactics will not be successful in my case, for I will shoot the man who tries to shanghai me, and they know it. Hence I do not think they will try it."

DIFFERENT VALUATIONS PLACED ON ESTATE OF MERDELL WELCKER.

According to an appraisement filed in the matter of the estate of the late Merdell Welcker of Berkeley, there is a great disparity in the valuations placed upon his property by the appraisers leading to the filing of a majority and minority report. The appraisers appointed were Otto Grunsky, R. E. Wilhoit and Frank H. Powers, and while the first two agree, Powers says that their valuations are far too low, and while they make a sum total of $61,700, Powers says that the estate is worth $238,700.

The main piece of property over which they disagree is a piece in Stockton, known as the Terminal tract and is valued by Grunsky and Wilhoit at $50,000, while Powers says it is worth $225,000. He also makes a horizontal raise on numerous other pieces of property of from $200 to a $1,000 on each piece above the other appraisers.

Russians Ran Away When the Bombardment Opened.

TOKIO, July 13, 6:30 p. m.—An eye witness of the Japanese bombardment of Karsakorsk wires that the Russian forts were silenced on July 7 after the exchange of a very few shots.

The piers, warehouses and other buildings were set afire and the conflagration was reflected by the foggy atmosphere, converting the sky into one mass of blood red color.

The Japanese army landed amidst the fire, which was fast spreading to the forts.

The infantry quickly captured the forts from the tops of which the bewildered inhabitants were seen fleeing in every direction, carrying what property they could remove. The fires were not subdued for over forty-eight hours.

The sunken Russian cruiser Novik which was destroyed by the Japanese at Karsakorsk last August and the ruined town and forts are sad witnesses of the rapidity with which destruction is wrought in modern warfare.

BADGE FOR UNION BARTENDERSMEMBERS IN GOOD STANDING WILL WEAR A BIT OF RIBBON.

A new departure is being planned by the members of the Bartenders' Union, Local 535. In the future there will be monthly badges given out by the financial secretary to the men when they pay their dues. When any member falls behind or otherwise incurs the displeasure of the union his badge will be withheld.

All the bartenders now wear the blue and white buttons of the International League. The new badges will be made of silk, with different colors for each month. The name of the month will also be stamped upon the silk. The arrangement of the system of colors, as well as other particulars, will be in the hands of the following committee: Daniel Ferguson (chairman), Fred Joslyn, Tom Geary and G. Polier. Before the next meeting of the local the badges will have been given out to those members who are in good standing by Financial Secretary Polier.

SIMILAR SYSTEM. The carmen's organization has a similar system of monthly buttons, as have also the Oakland locals of the teamsters. The carpenters have quarterly badges on the same principle.

At the meeting of the bartenders last night C. W. Potry of the Central Labor Council was present and made a stirring address on union matters. He urged the unionists to take more interest in the affairs of their local and the others. He received hearty applause.

Three new members were initiated. Four applications for membership were received and placed on file.

BUILDING TRADES. At the meeting of the Building Trades Council Tuesday evening the application of the Material Masters for reinstatement in the ranks was accepted.

A communication was received from the Oriental Exclusion League of Alameda county asking the co-operation of the council in its work. There was a long discussion, many speaking favorably of assisting the league.

At present the council is connected with the primary organization of that sort in San Francisco, but will probably lend its influence in assisting to organize sentiment against the Orientals in Alameda county.

No definite action was taken at the meeting, being postponed until next Tuesday for final decision. It is not anticipated that the council will sever its connection with the San Francisco organization.

EXECUTIVE BOARD. There was an important meeting of the executive committee of the Central Labor Council last night. A communication was received from the International Brotherhood of Railroad Freight and Baggage Men, asking that the workers in the trade be organized in this county. It was decided to recommend to the council that this work be turned over to the State Federation of Labor, to be performed through its organization.

The Tobacco Workers' International also sent a letter, which was considered last night. It asking that out of consideration for the wives and children of the workmen in the tobacco trade the union men use only tobacco-made goods. This will be turned over to the council.

DISTRICT COUNCIL. F. H. Pratt of the Oakland Painters' Union was elected last night to be president of the District Council of Painters, which covers this county and San Francisco. C. L. Park, secretary-treasurer, and J. H. Puffer, trustee, were the only other Oakland men honored with offices.

CAREFULLY GUARD BANDITSHERIFF AND FORCE OF DEPUTIES PREVENT A LYNCHING.

WINFIELD, Kansas, July 13.—There were threats during the night of lynching William Chadburn, the surviving bandit who shot and killed Detective Calhoun yesterday, and he was guarded closely at a physician's office by the Sheriff and a force of deputies until he could be taken today to jail at Sedon for safe keeping.

He may recover from his wounds. Chadburn was released from the Federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth a week ago after serving a three year sentence for robbing the postoffice at Mulhall, Oklahoma.

The body of Edwin Madigan, who was killed by the posse, will be buried in the potter's field.

ROCKEFELLER IS WEARY OF ATTACKS

CLEVELAND, O., July 13.—John D. Rockefeller has decided on a campaign of self-defense. He is weary of the attacks of his foes. Yesterday John D. Rockefeller answered an attack made in a magazine, and today when a reply was made he issued another statement reiterating and explaining in detail the story he told the day before.

James Corrigan, whom Ida Tarbell claimed was a victim of the oil king's greed, said he had told the truth. He said he lost his fight with Rockefeller in court, but that he was robbed by a man whom he considered a friend. He is very bitter toward Rockefeller.

Frank Rockefeller, brother of John D., is Corrigan's best friend. They ate lunch together yesterday. Frank, who is not on good terms with John D., will not take part in the Rockefeller-Corrigan fight. Frank Rockefeller announced that the family resented the criticism of his father, and would put a stop to attacks. He would not tell what course the family would pursue.

The annual picnic of St. Francis de Sales parish will be held at El Campo next Wednesday, July 13. The trip across the bay on the steamer J. H. Corcoran will be a most delightful one, and it is expected that a large number will take advantage of it. The committee has secured a large number of prizes, some of which are very valuable, to be contested for in the various games.

The committee will provide plenty of amusement for all from the time the steamer leaves the Oakland city wharf until the excursionists return home in the evening. Rev. Father McSweeney, pastor of the parish, and chairman of the arrangement committee, predicts a large attendance and a most enjoyable day's outing.

Rev. Father Cantwell, chairman of the games committee, has prepared a program for the boys and girls and adults that will amuse and satisfy all who attend. A brass band, composed of union musicians, will furnish music on the steamer and at the park.

BUNCO MEN ARE ARE AFTER SCOTT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—The second day in Chicago of Walter Scott, the whirlwind Death Valley mining wonder of California, was spent largely in warding off the attempts of bunco people to pry him loose from his money. Though he claims to be negotiating for a train to take him to New York in thirteen hours, it was predicted by Scott's visitors that he would go back to California without going to New York, and would be forgotten as quickly as he became noted, having accomplished what some persons believed was his mission to serve as an advertising "bunco" for the real war which he made the run, discounting previous records for Western speed.

Among his first visitors of the day was Lucy Page Gaston of anti-cigarette fame. Miss Gaston informed one of Scott's secretaries that she had come to interest the "Croesus" in the anti-cigarette movement.

I am going West, and I have come to enlist Mr. Scott's support in my fight against cigarettes," she said.

Then Imelda and Margaret Francis, 15 and 13 years old, respectively, wanted to see Scott and get him to help them finish their musical education.

During Scott's absence from the hotel in the afternoon his dog was stolen. Late in the afternoon Johann Hoch, the bigamist condemned to die on the gallows on July 23, declared that he was seeking to procure money for the same character as the visit of Scott. Hoch said that his messenger to Scott was a woman, but he declined to reveal her identity.

Scores of the curious, charity workers, beggars and promoters for various enterprises sought interviews in an attempt to interest Scott in their undertakings. Scott, who is in that jewelry visited him, but after receiving a dozen or more he decided to call a halt and gave instructions for his secretary to come and attend to his correspondence, an investigation of which demonstrated it to be largely of the same character as the visits of his callers. Scott is undecided how long he will remain in the city.

KILLED BY AN ENGINE AT FRESNO

FRESNO, July 13.—A Southern Pacific switching engine having three cars ran over William Zibbell, the well-known trotting horse driver, and Blaine S. McMahon of the Breeder and Sportman of San Francisco last evening. The men were dragged thirty feet across the main street of the city, McMahon being killed instantly. His body was shockingly mangled from the chest down.

Zibbell was still conscious at midnight, with both hands and one foot gone, one shoulder crushed and severe internal injuries. Zibbell's father is well known as a horseman and lives at 673 Eleventh avenue, San Francisco.

McMahon's people live in Martinsville and Indianapolis, Ind. Both men were about 25 years of age. They came here to attend next week's meeting of the Pacific Coast Trotting Horse Breeders' Association.

PEOPLE REFUSES HUSBAND HER MONEYBRIDE DECLARES SHE WILL NO LONGER SUPPORT SPOUSE.

Harry C. McAtee, who married Mrs. A. J. Yerrick on January 17 of this year, evidently thought he was winning a handsome widow and her fortune, but he found out that his bride's money was her own and not his. For over two weeks Mr. McAtee and his wife have not lived together, and now Mrs. McAtee says she will never live with him.

Mrs. McAtee has also been informed that her husband has another love. He has been receiving postals and letters from a woman in Los Angeles who sings her name as "H. J." Mrs. McAtee intercepted these letters, and spoke to her husband about them, and he admitted the truth of the accusation.

This was some time ago and the couple made peace again, but McAtee grew very insistent in his demands for money, and told his wife if she did not give him the money he wanted he would leave the house. Several weeks ago he asked her to loan him brother $800 with which to build a house. She agreed to this on condition that she be given a mortgage on the place. Then McAtee suggested that he be made the mortgagee, but Mrs. McAtee did not see it that way and the negotiations fell through.

On June 30th he again requested the loan of $800 for his brother and as his wife would not give it to him he told her he would leave the house and never return.

Since then Mrs. McAtee has not seen her husband and has announced her determination of securing a divorce on the grounds of desertion and unfaithfulness.

Mrs. McAtee inherited her fortune from her first husband, A. J. Yerrick, who was killed nearly two years ago by coming in contact with a live wire at Fortieth street and San Pablo avenue. She secured damages from the Oakland Traction Company to the amount of $10,000.

Then McAtee, who was a collector on the Key Route train, came along and married her. Mrs. McAtee has in her possession the postals and letters which her husband received from this strange woman in Los Angeles, and when the time comes she will produce them in court.

Mrs. McAtee says: "I gave him a good home when I married him. I was liberal in many ways, and my money went to pay many of our household expenses. I am done with him, and as soon as my attorney returns to Oakland I shall sue for a divorce."

TRAMP TURNS OUT TO BE EX-CONVICT

TACOMA, Wash., July 12.—A tramp who was shot at Ellensburg yesterday by Sheriff Thomas has been identified by a guard from McNell's Island Prison as William D. McCarthy, one of the escaped Federal convicts.

After shooting McCarthy, Sheriff Thomas arrested thirty tramps, and one of these has been identified as C. D. Castle, another of the convicts.

Of the eight convicts who escaped on the Fourth of July but one, George Wagon, who was the leader, remains at liberty.

SHANGHAI, July 13.—Chinese post-office officials have issued notices that communication has been stopped between Newchwang and all Western Manchurian towns to and including Harbin.

HAPPY RESULTS

Have Made Many Oakland Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Oakland citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Oakland by Doan's Kidney Pills.

C. T. Warren, house painter, paper hanger, etc., of 2008 Eighth street, Berkeley, says: "Like the majority of men who follow my calling I have been annoyed with my back and kidneys for years. I think if the primary cause of backaches in painters is not the fumes of the ingredients they use they certainly aggravate such annoyances when they exist. The painter requires a good, sound back, and when it aches and pains he is often in misery. Other complications of the stomach existed when I went to a drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills, and I scarcely expected the remedy would help my back. Much to my surprise and more to my gratification after I had taken two boxes the backaches ceased."

J. T. MORAN Oakland's Leading Clothier
1017 BROADWAY
Corner Eleventh StreetDEPEW STILL A NEWS DIRECTOR*HE HAS NOT RESIGNED FROM THE EQUITABLE SOCIETY.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Senator Depew has not resigned as a director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. This announcement was made today by Chairman Paul Morton of the Equitable when his attention was directed to an interview with the Senator in Paris yesterday, which was printed here today.

Mr. Morton said that just before Senator Depew sailed for Europe a few weeks ago he called at the Equitable offices and told the chairman that he would resign as director, and that he had no objection to his $30,000 a year position as special counsel to the society being canceled or abolished.

No formal presentation of the resignation has ever been made, however, and Mr. Morton said he was unprepared to say whether or not it would be accepted if tendered.

Senator Depew's connection with the society as special counsel will terminate on August 1, it having been announced some time ago that the position would be abolished at the end of the present month.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Charles Able, the young man who is alleged by Edwin M. Post, a member of the Stock Exchange to have represented himself as a solicitor for the Society Editors' Association and to have attempted to extort $500 from Post in consideration of the suppression from Town Topics of an article represented as tending to blacken the reputation of Post, was arraigned in the Tombs Police court. Able was represented by Abe Levy, Assistant District Attorney Paul Krotel has charge of the prosecution.

A short affidavit was presented to Magistrate McEaver, charging Able with extortion. Levy argued for small bail, saying there was no evidence of any crime. Magistrate McEaver fixed $500 as the amount. Nobody was ready to give it, and Able was sent back to his cell in the Tombs. His examination will be held Friday morning.

A statement in behalf of Town Topics and signed by W. D. Mann, proprietor and editor, was issued today. It declared that Town Topics had no connection with any attempted extortion of "the book canvasser arrested on Tuesday." Mann is now in Europe.

IT CURES LIQUOR HABIT

Orin is the only perfectly successful cure for the liquor habit the world has ever known. It is better than natures or sanitariums, because it is used at home and does not interfere with the daily work; better than will-power, because it never fails. It strengthens the nerves and gives good appetite, regulates digestion and makes you sleep like a child.

Orin, No. 1, will cure the habit of drinking and destroy his craving for drink without his knowledge, as it can be given secretly in tea, coffee or food. Orin, No. 2, in pill form, is for those who wish to be cured. The cost of either is $1 per box. Orin has the endorsement of only letters and physicians. It is the only remedy for the liquor habit that can be relied upon to cure at little expense and restore the drunkard to perfect vigor of manhood. Write to the Orin Company, Inc., Washington, D. NEWS FOR THE PRESIDENTHEARS THAT M. WITTE WILL BE RUSSIA'S LEADING ENVOY.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., July 13.—President Roosevelt received from the Associated Press the first definite news of the declaration of M. Muraviev to act as the principal plenipotentiary of Russia in the conference and of the designation by the Russian Emperor of M. Witte as the leading Russian envoy. Official notification of M. Witte's appointment has not reached the President from St. Petersburg, although it may come at any time. Unofficially the designation of M. Witte is regarded as most propitious. It is believed that his appointment is an assurance that peace in the Far East is near in sight.

Benjamin Winthrop, Governor of Porto Rico, and Edward C. Kent, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona, were guests of the President at Sagamore Hill today. They arrived from New York in time for luncheon and spent a part of the afternoon with the President.

TO INDICT
COLLINS

Grand Jury is in Session in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—This afternoon the Grand Jury is in session considering a charge of perjury against George D. Collins, the fugitive lawyer, who was taken into custody at Victoria yesterday by Chief of Police Langley.

It is possible that the Grand Jury may not return an indictment, and in that event a complaint will be sworn to in the Police Court, and upon the warrant subsequently to be issued the extradition of the now famous bigamist will be sought.

There will doubtless be a battle before the authorities attempt to bring Collins back to face his trial on the bigamy charge, for which he is already under indictment. Detective Tom Gibson will go to Victoria, but if he encounters trouble there District Attorney L. F. Byington will follow him for the purpose of taking care of the legal end of the contest.

SAYS MRS. MCCURDY LEFT.
A. M. More, a clerk who has served for a year and a half in the employ of George D. Collins, asserts that Mrs. McCurdy left this city on Sunday night, taking a train at the Oakland mole. Mrs. McCurdy, he declares told him she was going to Sacramento and return after taking a week's rest.

The police officials do not give the statement of More much credence, however, still clinging to the belief that the much-sought woman is in this city. They argue that if she had attempted to reach Portland, Seattle or Victoria to join her son-in-law and his bigamous wife she would have been caught on the way, as the northern police were notified to be on the lookout for her.

Mrs. McCurdy, according to statements made to the police, was seen in this city at 6 o'clock Sunday night and again on Monday morning. More says she left her house at 7 o'clock Sunday evening, went to the ferry, crossed the bay and took a train.

GRAND JURY WITNESSES.
The witnesses summoned to appear before the Grand Jury when the San Francisco grand jury met this afternoon were Henry Hiram W. Johnson, William Newman and Thomas E. Curran.

The testimony to be laid before the grand jury has to do with the proceedings in Judge Graham's court on June 10, when Collins filed an answer to the bigamy charge, in which he denied under oath the authenticity of the marriage record. A. J. Hiram Johnson, who was a witness to the marriage of Collins and his wife, was also a witness of Collins' first marriage, and acted as best man on that occasion.

So there seems, according to District Attorney Byington and the police, little doubt but that Collins committed deliberate perjury in swearing to the false answer.

MAY CHOOSE A WARRANT.
It is hardly probable that Collins will ever be brought to trial under the perjury indictment, for if he is brought back, the bigamy trial will probably be the one to which he will be subjected. But the perjury charge is an extraordinary offense and the officials for the present, of course, should try to convict him. They doubt, however, whether they can secure a perjury indictment.

The only question concerning the action of the Grand Jury is to be that some of the jurors may not believe perjury sufficiently well established to warrant a perjury indictment. Should such an opinion be held, a police officer will swear to a warrant in the ordinary manner.

After the warrant or indictment is made, District Attorney Byington will make a formal request for the extradition of Collins. If the Governor acquiesces, as he doubtless will, he will make his request of the Canadian officials that they turn Collins over to Detective Gibson.

SACRAMENTO, July 13.—Lewis F. Byington, District Attorney of San Francisco, has requested Acting Governor Anderson to ask the President for a provisional warrant of arrest for George D. Collins, the attorney who is charged with bigamy, and who escaped to Victoria, B. C.

AROUND

Frank W. Marston Returns From a Pleasant Outing.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Frank W. Marston, well known in business and social circles in this city, has just returned on the steamer Korea from a tour of the world. Mr. Marston was accompanied on his travels by his wife, and has been gone a year and a half.

After visiting the large Eastern cities Mr. and Mrs. Marston sailed for Europe, and spent some time in all the cities of the Continent. They also traveled extensively in England, Ireland and Scotland. Then they went to Egypt, and after tarrying for a while in Cairo sailed up the Nile. They visited India and China, spent two months in Japan and took occasion on their way home to examine the volcano of Kilauea.

"The country that most impressed me in every way," said Mr. Marston yesterday, "was Germany. But I have seen so much in my travels that it is hard to make comparisons. The scenery of the Swiss mountains I regard as the most beautiful in the world, and of all the art galleries that I have inspected the Vatican was certainly the greatest."

"The prettiest women in the world are to be found in Naples, there is no doubt about that. As for Paris—well, I have seen the good and the bad of it, and I think it is no place for a man to go without his wife."

"But after all my travels I am glad to get back. People speak of sunny Italy who do not seem to realize that the skies and the climate we have in Southern California are in every way equal to those of Italy. As to San Francisco, I can say this—I have visited cities all over the globe and have yet to find one where I would prefer to live."

Mr. and Mrs. Marston are not at all fatigued by their sightseeing, and will leave shortly for Portland to visit the Fair. They will go thence to Mexico, and will spend the winter in Florida.

TUG MAKES A GOOD SHOWING
AT THE MINT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—The tug Dauntless got into port this morning from Saginaw harbor, on the coast of Alaska, where she towed the ship Agnor. The tug, in command of Captain Shea, left this port with the ship in tow just thirteen days and five hours previous to the time she poked her bows back into the Golden Gate. She hauled the big ship 1,300 miles before putting her to anchor in the northern port. For the first two and a half days after leaving on the trip heavy northerly gales were encountered, and for hours during that time the tug scarcely moved ahead an inch against the storm. Then the tug headed well offshore, and when far from the land fair weather was encountered, that continued until the Alaskan harbor was reached. The Agnor is to load salmon for Japan and the cargo is to be rushed to its destination.

ZEALANDIA BACK FROM NORTH

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—The steamer Zealandia got back from a trip to Nome this morning and she brings news of a battle with ice in the northern seas. In her starboard bow is a great, gaping hole just on the water line, while on the port side several of her plates are indented from contacts with ice floes. The compartment forward of the collision bulkhead was flooded, but little damage was done to the vessel. In the hold of the steamer were 1,100 bundles of valuable furs.

FOUND A BODY
IN THE BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Mat Wagner, of the ferry steamer Cazadero, found the body of an unknown man floating in the North Shore ferry slip this morning. It was removed to the morgue and will be held awaiting identification. The unknown man had been in the water about ten days. He was evidently a laboring man, and was dressed in a black shirt and brown overalls. He was of sandy complexion and wore a heavy red watch. His age was about 35.

PROMINENT JUDGE ON A VISIT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Judge Julian W. Mack of Chicago is at the St. Francis Hotel and is on his way to Portland to attend the National Conference of Charities. The judge is also the president of the National Conference of Jewish Charities. He is a Californian by birth and at the tender age of four he, with his parents, left this city and settled in Chicago, where he is the Judge of the State Circuit Court, which court is also Judge of the juvenile court. He is also Judge of the juvenile court. In speaking of the work of the juvenile court, Judge Mack said this morning:

"Chicago was the first city in the United States to establish a juvenile court, which was in 1899, and the first judge was Tuttle, who held court for five years. I have been the Judge of this court for one year and shall retain the position for another year. This court has worked marvels in the way of reform, and I am confident that it is one of the most useful of the courts in the land. I hold two sessions a week and handle from sixty to 100 cases at each sitting of the court."

"Yes, I know that Denver has had a lot of advertising about her court, but it does not begin to do the work that our court does."

The judge declined to say whether the small boys of Chicago were any better or worse than the small boys of any other city, but contented himself with saying that he understood that our juvenile court was doing good work in the way of reform.

Judge Mack has gained considerable fame by his decision in the famous traction case of Chicago, which has been bitterly fought in both the State and the Federal courts. His opinion on the case was one of the lengthiest that has been handed down in any court, as it had to deal with many legal technicalities. His decision was in favor of the majority stockholders. The opinion is expressed that this will be no means end the litigation, as there will in all probability be an appeal taken.

ARGUE IN LAND
FRAUD CASE

PORTLAND, Or., July 13.—Arguments of counsel began today in the trial of Congressman Williamson and Messrs. Van Gester and Biggs, charged with subornation of perjury in connection with the land frauds in this State.

Attorney Bennett for the defense charged that the indictment was defective in that it did not sufficiently state the crime charged, and he maintained that the Government had failed to prove a conspiracy among the defendants to suborn perjury.

United States District Attorney Heney, for the prosecution, declared that the guilt of the defendant had been positively established. He insisted that the association of Williamson with the other defendants had been established and that there was ample evidence of their complicity with the conspiracy alleged.

Witnesses Do Not Agree as to Who Fired the Shot—Hackman
Tells Story.

Lee Robbins, who is accused of an assault with a deadly weapon on Frank W. Dunne, was before Police Judge Samuels this afternoon for the conclusion of his preliminary hearing.

Marion F. Davis, a hack-driver, was put on the witness stand by Attorney Lin Church on behalf of Robbins.

Davis testified that on the morning of the difficulty between Dunne and Robbins he was driving up Thirteenth street from Jefferson. He saw three men engaged in a struggle. His attention was attracted to them by a bullet whizzing past his head.

He states that the bullet was presumably fired by Dunne, whose arm was extended in the direction of Robbins and a third party.

The third party in the struggle is alleged by Davis to have taken the gun away from Dunne and to have taken a shot at Dunne while Dunne and Robbins were struggling.

The witness stated that the three men continued to struggle until he left them and others came to the scene.

The man in the long overcoat and Robbins made their escape, leaving the scene and going in the direction of Thirteenth street, while Dunne went to the Hotel Metropole.

Prosecuting Attorney Greene subjected Davis to a severe cross-examination in an effort to break his testimony relative to Dunne firing one of the shots.

DROP IN ALL
GRADES OF SUGAR

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—A reduction of twenty per cent in all grades of sugar has been announced. The drop is attributed to the weakness of the raw sugar market. The price of that article is leaving almost his entire stock of 14 cents per pound. The decline in raw sugar has been in a measure caused by the excellent prospects in Europe for a large increase in the beet sugar output and this crop, which forms a little more than one-half of the world's output will come into the market in August.

SENATOR DEPEW EXPLAINS

Tells About the Big Loan From the Equitable Company Declares Loss Will Not be Large if Proper Action is Taken.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Senator C. M. Depew, who has made a statement to the Paris correspondent of the New York Tribune regarding the loan of $250,000 made by the Equitable Life Society to the Depew Land Improvement Company on property alleged to have been worth only $150,000, in which he says that he had never advocated or recommended any such transaction, because he was a director of the Equitable.

Senator Depew further says: "That loan never could have been made unless the official appraisers of the Equitable had reported after examination that $250,000 was only sixty per cent of the property's value, such being the rule of the society, and that on such a report the officers of the company had unanimously approved it."

"The Depew Land Improvement Company was organized and in operation some five years before I was induced to become a stockholder. It had then about 3000 inhabitants and many thriving industries, including the New York Central shops, and connected with several trunk lines. The company appointed a general manager, who built houses, a hotel, opened streets, extended the water and sewer systems and incurred great liabilities in improvements. "A few of the larger stockholders formed a plan to pay off all liabilities and provide working capital, but the stockholders were so numerous, a large number living abroad, that co-operation could not be secured and the company went into the hands of a receiver five years after the Equitable loan. The appraisal of the property has been made by officers and independent persons, the lowest valuation being $200,000 over and above all liabilities."

"If the Equitable and other creditors would accept the proposition of the hands of the receivers and put it on a going basis, there is no possibility of loss. In the contrary, in the judgment of those best acquainted with the property, there is a certainty of profit."

A few days before I sailed from New York I placed my resignation as counsel in the hands of Chairman Morton, and I am very glad that he accepted it. I have passed on several hundred times and made up my mind before I reached seventy-two to secure something of that rest and freedom from incessant work that has been denied me year after year."

BROTHERHOOD HAS TALBOT GIVEN OPEN HOUSE HIS SONS

ENTERTAINS MEMBERS AND FRIENDS WITH A BANQUET UNTIL AFTER VACATION.

LIVERMORE, July 13.—The Fraternal Brotherhood gave a banquet and dance Monday night at the Masonic Hall. The regular lodge business occupied the first part of the evening, followed by the banquet in the annex, where plates were set for sixty people. At the conclusion of the banquet dancing was indulged in until a late hour. Excellent music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Durrmann, and the evening was voted a very successful one socially.

ENTERTAIN LEAGUE. Mr. J. Wilder and son Henry entertained the members of the Epworth League Tuesday night at their home on Lizzie street. The evening was pleasantly passed by games and other similar amusements. Those present were Mrs. J. Wilder, Mrs. Frank Freter, Mrs. J. Van Dyke, Misses Florence Brooks, Ethel Badgley, Caphurine King, Jane Foster, Mary Foster, Helen and Josie Wheeler, Olive Frost and Bertha Budgworth and Messrs. J. Wilder, Henry Wilder, Machin Beck, W. J. Rice, U. Rouse, Robert Baker and Rev. H. W. Baker.

BARN ON FIRE. A fire broke out in a barn used by William Stoven Tuesday night, about 11:30 o'clock. Owing to the prompt action of Norman M. Smith, who lives near the scene of the fire, the flames were held at bay by means of extinguishers until the arrival of the fire company, when they were quickly put out. The damage was not great, only one end of the barn burning out. All the horses and wagons stored in the barn were saved.

The fire company held its monthly drill and meeting Monday night at the Town Hall. Peter Murray was unanimously selected to be recommended to the Town Board as fire George W. Beck was similarly chosen as secretary of the company.

PERSONAL NOTES. Mr. and Mrs. James Dolan of Los Angeles are in town on a visit to friends and relatives here. Miss Minnie Bradshaw of San Francisco is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bradshaw, for a short visit.

Mrs. Olive Frost of Seattle is visiting her aunt, Mrs. O. W. Phillips. Mr. H. Beck of San Francisco is paying his family a visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas spent a portion of this week in the Bay Cities visiting friends and relatives. John Reimann left Tuesday for Santa Cruz to attend his brother-in-law, John Jacobs, who was hurt in an explosion there.

PRESIDENT OF MEDICAL SOCIETY

PORTLAND, Or., July 13.—Dr. W. J. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., will probably be chosen the successor of Louis S. McMurtry, as president of the American Medical Association, at the election of officers which will take place on the 18th day of the present meeting. Last year at Atlantic City there was a spirited contest between the two candidates, the president-elect of the body being victorious by only one vote. This year there seems little doubt that Dr. Mayo will be elected to take his seat at the opening of the session one year hence. Next to the president, the second question of prominence uppermost in the minds of the doctors is where the next session shall be held. Boston seems to have a strong following and it is probable will be the choice of the members of the house of delegates. Atlantic seaboard locations attract a large attendance of physicians engaged in local practice, and since no centrally located city is making an urgent request for consideration, it is probable that the Massachusetts metropolis will be selected. Dr. George H. Simmons, who has been elected secretary, will be re-elected to that position without opposition.

DRIVER IS INJURED. While driving a fractious horse, Andrew Post, a driver for the Fruitvale Lumber Company, was thrown from his seat yesterday and sustained a severe fracture of his left leg.

The animal was frightened by a piece of paper which was flying in front of him and turned sharply to one side, throwing out the driver. The patrol wagon was summoned and Post was taken to his home where he received medical attention.

PUNISHMENT. Friend—Was that African potentate you met very severe upon the criminals in his jurisdiction? "Yes," he would say, "sometimes a head, and in particularly aggravated cases, he would make them wear the clothes; the missionary societies send them—Life."

HE CAN ENTERTAIN THEM UNTIL AFTER VACATION.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—After three days of tireless endeavor Millionaire William H. Talbot has finally succeeded through his counsel in securing from his wife, Annie, a relinquishment of the custody of their little sons, Willie and Leroy, during the vacation period. An agreement to this effect was reached late yesterday afternoon and a trust will prevail until the court convenes about the middle of August.

Yesterday at 2 o'clock Judge Murasky received Attorney Samuel M. Shortridge, representing Mrs. Talbot, and Attorney W. H. Jordan, representing Mr. Talbot, in his chambers. These attorneys announced, however, that Mrs. Talbot was obdurate and would consent to no agreement that would take her children from her side for a single day, let alone a month or two. Things began to look rather hopeless, when Judge Murasky directed that Mrs. Talbot be summoned to a conference to be held at 4:30 o'clock. At this hour she appeared, strikingly gowned in gray and lavender, and was ushered before the court, sitting in Judge Coffey's chambers, by Attorney Shortridge.

Mr. Talbot was discreetly entertained by his attorney in Judge Murasky's chambers during the conference between Mrs. Talbot and the court. The belligerent husband and wife did not see each other, with the result that anything approaching a scene was avoided.

At first Mrs. Talbot refused to move an inch from the position she had taken that as the mother of her children she should be given the sole right to care for them; that a mother's love was the only love that could offer the full measure of comfort to the innocents.

"But," explained the court, "Mr. Talbot also has great affection for his little ones and misses their company greatly." Still Mrs. Talbot remained unmoved. Then Attorney Shortridge, while unwilling to yield a point in favor of his opponent, took up the argument. He is a lawyer and recognized that the question had resolved itself into one of a mother's love, accentuated by pique, pitted against justice and the affection of a father.

Finally, however, the judge departed, the scales tipped beneath the weight of the father's affection and his equitable rights and the fight was his.

Mrs. Talbot agreed that Mr. Talbot should have their sons until such time as the court convenes after vacation, she to retain the custody of their little daughter, Vera. This agreement reached, Mrs. Talbot left the City Hall, her husband following shortly. Mr. Talbot will take his youngsters to Redwood City for an outing.

SIRE TO SON

Boy Can Sometimes Learn From His Father.

When you catch them young enough you can usually make your sons profit by your own experience. Afterwards, it's different. A lady tells how her son was made to profit by what his father had learned: "My husband was always fond of coffee, and after his business took him from home he would drink a cup of coffee every day. He was so fond of it that his kidneys became affected, and he suffered greatly with pains and despondency, till, as he says, 'coffee nearly killed me.' So he stopped using it, and began to drink Postum Coffee. It cured him; and in a very short time his kidneys resumed their normal functions, his pains were allayed, and his despondency which had nearly driven him crazy ceased to trouble him."

"My little boy, a year old, had suffered ever since he was weaned, from indigestion and bowel troubles. He could not properly digest the milk he drank. It passed out of his bowels in hard lumps, sometimes large and again like small pellets, frequently producing diarrhoea, and then we would have to call in the doctor. But the trouble returned, again and again."

"We used to give him a taste of Postum Coffee occasionally, and as I saw that he relished it, and realized how much good it had done his father, I began to put a little in his bottle of milk. The effect was so salutary that I gradually increased the quantity, till at last I used only enough to give it color. He thrived wonderfully on it. He is over two years old now, and his digestion is all right. Postum has made him uncommonly large and strong and healthy. I give him a bottle for four times a day. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich."

There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in each pkg.

PLOTTED TO MURDER THE RULER OF RUSSIA

Elaborate Plans Were Made to Take the Czar's Life. Tunnel Was Found Under His Majesty's Castle at Hlinskoje.

NEW YORK, July 13.—A World dispatch from London contains the following from the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph:

"Private letters from St. Petersburg state that the police have discovered elaborate preparations for blowing up the castle of Hlinskoje, near Moscow, where the Czar with the Imperial family intended to take up a brief residence. Beneath the apartments destined for his Majesty's use, a subterranean passage is said to have been found leading to a cellar where 250 pounds of dynamite lay concealed.

"The police have made many arrests, apprehending, among others, two engineers who conducted the cleaning and decorating of the apartments at the castle.

"This intelligence, associated with the murder of Shuvaloff, has made a deep impression.

"The Czar has now given up all idea of staying at Hlinskoje."

What the Chinese Want.

The Chinese Free Press of San Francisco is not impressed with the President's recent order regarding the interpretation and enforcement of the exclusion act. It is not the way the law is enforced that concerns the Free Press editor; he wants the law itself repealed; he wants all laws which restrict Chinese immigration to these shores wiped off the statute books. Nothing else will content him, and he cheers on the boycott till that is done. He declares that the President has not administered a corrective for the evils complained of, but has simply reiterated the provisions of the law as it is written. Speaking of the President's order our Chinese contemporary says:

"A most cursory reading of this document will show that Mr. Roosevelt has not administered a corrective for the evils complained of, but has simply reiterated, with something of verbal surplage, the provisions of the law as it is already written. The Chinese, be it understood, do not object to the law, but to its mal-administration. The order simply says to the officers to whom certain duties are allotted that if they neglect those duties they will be 'fired.' As performance of duty and the penalty of dismissal attaches to all appointees, it cannot be claimed that the President has startled the country by devising a new plan to meet the 'Chinese question.' He very prettily says that 'the law must be enforced without harshness, and all unnecessary inconvenience and annoyance toward those persons—that is those armed with certificates—entitled to enter the United States must be scrupulously avoided,' and then nullifies his apparent good intention by ordering that 'if there is a reason to believe that any certificate has been improperly issued, or is being improperly used, a thorough investigation will be made into its issuance.'"

This is followed by an attack on the law and upon the officials charged with its enforcement. It is broadly stated that the investigations conducted by the Immigration Bureau are a mere cover for blackmail. "It is in these investigations," says the Free Press, "that the successful blackmailing and bribery are carried on by threats of deportation, detention in the shed and accompanying brutalities, excessive attorneys' fees, and all the minor acts of 'harshness' which the President so feelingly deprecates, unless quick payments are made to the investigator."

So, our laws are bad, but our officials are worse. We must not only repeal the law, but the service must be reformed before this capacious Mongolian critic will be placated.

Isn't the price asked for Chinese trade rather high? And does not such language as what follows indicate a degree of insolence somewhat revolting to the American stomach:

"If he (the President) further neglects to do this, and still permits his own direct or remote appointees to pillage and maltreat innocent parties while exercising their lawful rights, what shall we say of the power to enforce laws or the sincerity of the head of the U. S. Government?"

The unreasoning trepidation caused by the Chinese boycott seems to have inflamed the Oriental mind with the idea that it is only necessary to push home the little advantage gained and Congress will hasten to pull down the bars while the President will apologize hat in hand for ever intimating that the Chinese should not have the free run of the United States and the best in the house. We are under the impression, however, that the broadsides of the Free Press will strengthen rather than weaken exclusion sentiment.

The Georgia Legislature, composed almost exclusively of Democrats, has passed resolutions calling on Congress to repeal the Chinese exclusion law. Out here the Democratic organs are vociferously asserting that the administration is pulling down the barriers against Chinese immigration. It is to be observed, however, that both the President and Secretary Taft have emphatically declared in favor of the exclusion law.

The employing printers of San Francisco who have locked their employees out admit that they have violated a written agreement entered into with the Typographical Union, but allege as excuse that they were forced into making the agreement by threats of a strike. The excuse is poor enough at best, but in this instance it is without merit at all. The proposition for an eight-hour day for a fixed rate of compensation came from the employers. The compositors made a demand for an increase in wages of fifty cents a day, and the employers proposed an eight-hour day at the old rate as a compromise. Now they are deliberately going back on their own proposition. Their action indicates that there is some truth in the assertion that they have been persuaded and bullied into repudiating their agreement by the Citizens' Alliance. And it is not amiss to remark that the last teamsters strike in San Francisco was brought about in precisely the same way.

The nervous persons who have been exciting themselves with the fear that Secretary Taft would give permission for the erection of any sort of an old bridge across Carquinez Straits may now quiet down. It has been discovered that no one can throw a bridge across navigable waters unless authorized to do so by act of Congress or the State Legislature. Secretary Taft stated that he would not take the bridge matter up till after his return from the Philippines in October, but his statement seemed to weigh little with certain public-spirited editors who ostentatiously mounted guard over the strait and announced that its free navigation should not be interfered with even if they had to holler their heads off. As a fact, Secretary Taft is only collecting technical data which the War Department will submit to Congress when it meets in December.

We might get even with the Chinese by boycotting their fire-crackers.

There is a growing suspicion that the Czar sent Rojstvensky's fleet out to be sunk by the Japs to prevent the crews from revolting and joining the insurrection. Russian policy is said to be very profound.

An Unscrupulous Attorney.

While the application of the real wife of George D. Collins, the fugitive attorney, for a family allowance was pending in court it developed that a notary public of San Francisco had attached his jurat to an alleged affidavit presented to the court without ever seeing Collins or administering the necessary oath. He did not know whether Collins signed the affidavit or not, yet he certified officially that Collins had personally appeared before him and made oath as the law requires to the contents of the affidavit. In court the notary confessed that the document had been brought to him already signed by a clerk of Collins, and that he affixed the false certification thereto. He thus lent himself to a fraud on the court, and as it has since developed to a cunning scheme to evade a prosecution for perjury. The act of this notary should be brought to the attention of the Governor. A man so ready to lend himself to fraudulent schemes should not be permitted to hold a notary's commission. It should be made a felony for a notary to knowingly certify falsely that a person had appeared and made oath to an important document. In this case, the only hope of extraditing Collins rests upon the perjured oath he took when he declared that he was never married to the woman who has passed as his wife for sixteen years. Had the trick he attempted to play with connivance of the notary not been discovered, the chance to extradite and bring him to punishment would have been lost.

The South and Ireland.

The Stockton Record compares Ireland to the South. The comparison is unfortunate. There is no analogy between the States formerly in rebellion and the Emerald Isle. All laws in this country operate alike in every State, which is not and never was the case in Ireland, which has been governed by a special set of statutes having no application in either England or Scotland. Nor is it true that the South enjoys an undue proportion of strength in Congress and the Electoral College as compared with the North. The Federal constitution commands that representation in Congress be based on the total number of inhabitants—not the number of electors who exercise the franchise—and does not make voting compulsory. Because a much larger proportion of men vote in the North than in the South is no evidence that the South enjoys a disproportion of representation.

Nor is it fair to assume that the Southern States are analogous to Ireland in other respects. The Irish are held in subjection against their will, and are denied the right of local self-government. In the South every State has its own Legislature which enacts all laws relating to local administration and the right of a Southern State in this respect is equal to the right of any other State.

The proposition tentatively before the British Parliament is to make population the basis of representation in the House of Commons. Such a basis has never before been established, although some of the glaring inequalities of the borough system have been corrected by successive acts of Parliament. The object of the proposed measure is to decrease the representation of Ireland and increase that of England, Scotland and Wales. On its face it is equitable enough, but it involves a breach of faith.

By the Act of Union, by which Irish autonomy was abolished, Ireland was given an arbitrary representation of 103 members in the House of Commons and 24 elective peers. At that time Ireland had nearly as many inhabitants as England and three times as many as Scotland. Hence her representation was grossly inadequate to her population. Now it is proposed to violate one of the conditions on which Irish autonomy was surrendered. But when did England ever keep faith with Ireland?

A Texas Philanthropist.

San Francisco reveres the memory of James Lick as a public benefactor of the noblest type. Mr. Lick gave some $1,700,000 to various public purposes. He endowed the Academy of Sciences and the Lick Observatory, made provision for public baths and the erection of a monument in Golden Gate Park to Francis Scott Key, the author of the "Star Spangled Banner," and a group of statuary in front of the city hall as a memorial to the early settlement of California. He also made the Society of Pioneers his residuary legatee. His name is deservedly honored in this State.

But the little city of Galveston, Texas, can furnish a benefactor of even a nobler type than James Lick. Henry Rosenberg came to Texas as a poor Swiss immigrant and became the richest citizen of Galveston. He gave between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 to public benefactions, much of it during his life time. He built a magnificent schoolhouse, a public library, a stately building for the Y. M. C. A., an old women's home and Grace Episcopal Church, and endowed several of the institutions very liberally. He erected a splendid monument in memory of the pioneers of the Republic of Texas and placed sixteen drinking fountains in different parts of the city.

When will some rich citizen of Oakland emulate James Lick and Henry Rosenberg, and endear his memory to a grateful posterity? This city is sadly in need of some memorials to taste and public spirit.

THE BRIGHT SIDE.

Go pluck from every flaming bush
The dewy rose of morn,
And keep the ruby-colored cup,
But cast away the thorn;
Retain the flower's golden heart,
But not the bitter smart.

Go look on life in every scene,
The gloomy and the gay,
Remembering the splendid ones
And cast the rest away;
Recall the ones with love aglow,
But turn away from woe.

Go sip from all the cups of life
In all her ways among,
But banish all the thought of dregs
And keep upon your tongue
The honey, sweetest draught of all,
But throw away the gall.

ROCKEFELLER'S OATH.

As the business developed and its practices became more hostile to public good, one of its chief aims was to protect itself from publicity. It became the practice to conceal whatever advantages it gained and whatever relations it formed—if charged with them to deny them under oath. "You were a member of the Southern Improvement Company?" he was asked once by an investigating committee. "I was not," he said. Yet Mr. Rockefeller was a member of this company, owned 280 shares of its stock—was one of the two men who stood by it until public indignation overthrew it. "The Standard Oil Company owns and operates its refineries at Cleveland, O. and its refinery at Bayonne, N. J.; it has no other refineries nor any interest in any other refineries, nor does the Standard Oil Company operate or control in the United States any other refineries of crude petroleum," he swore in 1880, when for five years the Standard Oil Company had owned by direct purchase the largest refineries in New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—Ida M. Tarbell in July McClure's.

WEDDINGS THAT ARE INTERESTING THE PEOPLE AT HOME.

The marriage of Miss Florence Starr and Joseph Notely Thomas will be solemnized Wednesday evening, August 2, at the home of the bride's brother, Walter Starr, in East Oakland. This engagement was one of the interesting announcements of last year, since the Starr family is one of the oldest and best known about the bay.

Miss Starr has made her home in San Francisco for the past few years, but prior to that time lived on this side of the bay, and has a wide circle of friends here.

The ceremony will be a quiet home affair, attended only by relatives and most intimate friends.

NOON WEDDING.

An interesting wedding was solemnized at noon yesterday at the St. Francis Hotel, when Mrs. Georgia Stein became the bride, of Albert Pissis. Rev. Father Hamet, of the French Church, officiated. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses, carnations and trailing clematis, and in the dining-room ferns and heather were used with artistic effect.

The bride was gowned in pongee silk, the waist trimmed with a deep border of leaves and flowers woven in dull green and yellow. The yoke and sleeves were of point applique lace made over white chiffon and green silk. The bouquet was of La France roses. The bride's only attendant was her little daughter, Ethel Stein, who wore pale blue satin and carried white carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Emil Pissis.

Mrs. J. Parquer, the bride's mother, wore a handsome gown of gray and white brocade trimmed with Irish point lace.

There were only a dozen guests present at the ceremony, which was followed by a breakfast. Mr. and Mrs. Pissis left on the afternoon train for Southern California, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will occupy apartments at the St. Francis.

HATES TO BE GIRL; DONS CLOTHES OF A BOY

DETROIT, Mich., July 13.—With her hair closely cropped and attired in the uniform of a messenger, 16-year-old Frances Dunnegan was arrested by police officers.

Frances' ambition to become a messenger succeeded a desire to be a jockey. She says she went to Highland Park to see a stable boy she knew there and tried to make arrangements to learn to ride horses, but negotiations fell through.

She borrowed a suit of messenger's clothes from a boy friend and then with a pair of shears slashed most of her hair off.

"A barber cut the rest off," explained Frances, "and when he got through he asked me if I wanted it 'wet or dry.' I don't know what to say for a minute and said 'wet.' Then he shaved my neck and it felt funny."

Frances assumed the name of "Bob" Murphy and was to have started delivering messages Wednesday night.

"I suppose they'll send me to Adrian until I am 21," said Frances today. "I'll save up $30 or so and go to Ireland. Got people over there who'll treat me right."

"Don't like being a girl. Want to be a boy and make some money."

UMBRELLA STOLEN 29 YEARS AGO RETURNED

LITITZ, Pa., July 13.—Captain J. R. Bricker, of Warwick, had returned by a coincidence-stricken thief an umbrella that was stolen from him twenty-nine years ago. A few days ago he was surprised to find the umbrella on his porch, and to it was attached this note:

"Mr. Bricker—Dear Friend: I have had the umbrella since July 4, 1876. Please excuse me for not returning it sooner, and please have it fixed up as soon as possible, as I may need it again next Fourth. Friendly yours."

Captain Bricker declares he does not know who the thief is; but if he makes his identity known and calls at the house he will be treated to a good meal for his honesty.

The umbrella is rather the worse for usage, but Captain Bricker says he will preserve it as a curiosity.

APPOINTS A WOMAN OVERSEER OF HIGHWAY

CHATHAM, N. Y., July 13.—When Highway Commissioner Philip S. Purcell, of the town of Kinderhook, made his appointments of overseers of the highway in the various districts of that town one of the appointees was Miss Bessie Bain, who lives midway between the villages of Valatie and Chatham.

Some of the men chosen declined the appointments, and others were named in their stead, but Miss Bain accepted her warrant without hesitation and assured Mr. Purcell that she would see that the work was well done. She intends to have the best section of road in the township. She will superintend the work in person, and put into effect some original ideas relative to road construction.

Miss Bain devotes much energy to the management of the farm on which she lives, and does it because she finds the work congenial rather than because of necessity, as the family is well off. She is an expert with the reins, and every morning drives a spirited team four miles to Chatham, when the milk from the farm is delivered at the station. She is equally at home at the piano or in the ball room, and is a prominent member of Chatham and Kinderhook society.

WOMEN WAGE WAR ON ONIONS.

"It is Eaten Solely For Its Noisome Essential Oil By Those it Has Debauched Into a Disregard For the Right of Others," Woman's Alliance Resolves.

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 13.—The onion, that odorous vegetable which renders a very pretty mouth unmissable, estranges friends and disgusts the public, is an outcast in Portsmouth, where society is now waging a relentless war against it.

In a course of lectures given under the auspices of the Alliance of Women's Clubs in Portsmouth one of the speakers, in the course of a talk upon "Gastronomic Eccentricities," laid bare the fact that the onion had absolutely no value as a food; that it had no taste whatever, appealing only to the sense of smell; and that it was really useless to the stomach, as well as a nuisance, because of the disposition of its nastiness to manifest itself in the breath.

Immediately there started all sorts of arguments about the onion, many taking the part of the now crushed and down-trodden vegetable.

Strange to say, these arguments grew so heated that lifetime friends refused to speak, brothers quarreled, and in one instance an engagement was broken off because the prospective groom carried in his pocket an onion for the purpose, he said, of demonstrating the contention that it had taste.

In endeavoring to settle the whole dispute the Alliance of Women's Clubs convened in extraordinary session and adopted resolutions which have drawn upon inspiration for facts. The resolutions follow:

Whereas, The most flagrant violation of the feelings of others which is at all prevalent at the beginning of the twentieth century is the use of the onion; and

Whereas, The process of evolution which civilization represents has always gradually increased its consideration for the feelings of others until many customs and habits which were offending to a minority of the persons going to make up society have been discontinued; and

Whereas, In the higher civilization the onion will be grown only to furnish specimens for botanical collections, where it will be classed with the noxious herbs of the illy family; and

Whereas, There is to the person not addicted to the vice of the onion eating nothing so disgusting, nothing so sickening as the penetrating, nauseous odor which emanates from the person of one who has feasted on this foul-smelling vegetable; and it is absolutely, without excuse; and

Whereas, The Apostle Paul, in his letter to the Romans, doubtless referred to the eating of onions when he said, "If any man defile the temple of God him shall God destroy, for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are; therefore,

Be it declared, The sense of this body that the following facts be set forth, to settle a discussion now cutting gyal contortions in our midst. The onion has no value as a food. It is 99 per cent water and wood fibre, which furnish no nourishment, and, aside from these components, it has nothing but an acrid, volatile, essential oil. It has not even taste. It appeals to the appetites of those it has debauched only through the sense of smell. One by putting a piece of it on his tongue while holding his nose can prove this for himself.

Many say, "Why isn't the onion healthy?" Yes, and so is asafetida, which has exactly the same gastronomic value and is used as a condiment by some dark-skinned heathens of the Orient."

WOMEN TALK ABOUT HARD WORK AND TRUSTS

NEW YORK, July 13.—Joy because they are permitted the proud privilege to work was the keynote yesterday in the first session of the first convention of the Business Woman's National League.

To the members who sat and sweated under the sun-heated glass dome of the palm room of the Hotel Eldridge, in which the meetings were held, the day marked an epoch in the history of womanhood. While there was general rejoicing "that composite woman has come to healthy consciousness," there was a slight difference of opinion as to just what the healthy woman stands for.

It was made emphatic, however, that she must give up sentimentality and see things as they are, and not as she would have them. She must renounce her ideals, her dreams—which sometimes are all of her life—and come down to a cold, hard, practical basis.

The delightful inconsistency of the sex was also emphasized by the fact that the woman who was most strenuous in her declaration that woman must renounce her sentimentality and be practical wore short sleeves and displayed well-rounded arms and dimpled elbows. And the other, who was in the front ranks of the practical ones, a Westerner, wore the mannish little watch fob, but was so décolleté under her very thin and transparent shirt waist as even to make New York set up and take notice.

The National officers, with Miss Hardin in the chair, occupied the platform, and seventeen women comprised the band of those who were making history and marking woman's emancipation from the fetters that have bound her for these many years.

There were greetings from all sorts of leagues and clubs, and letters read from the absent who were there in spirit.

Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford, of Denver, the organizer of the league, then, in ringing tones, unfurled the woman standard and classified man.

"The hope in my heart is," said Mrs. Bradford, "that composite woman may come to healthy consciousness."

"What are the trusts. They are brutal, and why? Our institutions are brutal to-day because they stand for man."

"Man stands for force, for power, for strength."

"We women stand for production, for creation, for mind, for love and soul."

"We stand for the humanization of mankind."

"I can be anything that a good, intelligent woman can be."

"And so because of woman's dual powers, we stand for the realization of the economic independence of women."

Then Miss Minnie J. Reynolds eulogized the American woman.

"There is one thing I would impress on all women," she said. "They must shun all sentimentality. Ever since woman came into the world, her sentimentality has been kept in the hot-house, and her judgment in cold storage. This order of things must be reversed."

"Somebody said that if woman 'cannot get what she likes she must like what she gets,' which sentiment was also applauded, although not in line with the general suggestions and precepts of the speakers. The feature of the evening was the annual address of the President, Miss Louise Lee Hardin, of Denver.

When some men have no better occupation they hunt up something for their wives to do."

HUSBAND ARRESTED FOR KISSING HIS OWN WIFE

NEW YORK, July 13.—Two detectives of the East Twenty-second street station stood in a dark doorway at Fourteenth street and Irvin place last evening when they saw a handsome young woman, stylishly gowned and wearing jewelry, greet a man at the corner and take his hand. They stepped out and promptly arrested her.

"Why," exclaimed the woman, surprised, "this is my husband!"

"Husband or no husband, you will go with us," said the detectives.

"That is my wife, you are to understand, and you will not take her," protested the man.

Thereupon he, too, was promptly placed in custody. Both were taken to the station and despite their insistence that they were man and wife and had a right to speak in public, they were locked up, the woman being taken to the East Thirty-fifth station. She gave her name as Mrs. Jennie Donnelly, her age as twenty-eight years, and said she lived with her husband at No. 228 West Twenty-fifth street.

Donnelly was charged with interfering with an officer in the performance of his duty. At the station the man renewed his protest to Sergeant Fitzpatrick that the arrest was an outrage, but was locked up without even the slightest investigation having been made.

The policeman making the arrests was W. T. Kuhn and James Kenney, who have been assigned in plain clothes to the work of hiding the district of questionable women characters.

When questioned in the station Donnelly was found to have fifty silver dollars and a bank roll of $700. They had spent nearly two hours in cells before the man and the woman he claimed as his wife were released on bonds.

"This is another of the numerous police outrages that go on here," said Donnelly. "My wife and I have just returned from a trip over the Fourth to Pennsylvania. I left her at the corner for a moment, and when I got back and she greeted me, these 'cops' arrested her. And why? Because she spoke to me, spoke to her own husband. The detectives don't claim she spoke to any one else. It's a pretty state of affairs if a woman can't speak to her own husband in the streets of New York. I have nothing more to say now, but this case isn't over by any means."

Inquiry made at the West Twenty-fifth street address was answered with the information that Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly lived there and were expected to return from a trip in Pennsylvania last evening.

Donnelly will prefer charges.

While most brides prefer to cut their own wedding cake, with its pretty touch of sentiment, the fashion of distributing small slices of the cake daintily boxed prevails almost universally.

For this purpose an extra cake is baked and left unfrosted, then packed in tiny boxes ready for each guest as she leaves the house. While some of these bride's boxes are very expensive, made of white silk with intertwined initials of the bride and groom done in silver and encircled with fillets of the valley in silver, there are very pretty ones, round, square or oblong, made of white pasteboard and lined with the lace paper, that sell as low as four and five cents each. These boxes are tied with white ribbon.

A little leaf-mold around the surface of the ground about the roots of hardy ferns will improve the color if they appear sickly.

WEALTHY WOMAN TO MARRY FORMER CONVICT

BOSTON, July 13.—Wealthy Mrs. Elizabeth Chadwick, 68 years old, announces her engagement to be married to George Tripp, who has just served a term in Charlestown prison for forgery. He is 30 years old.

Mrs. Chadwick has recently received a legacy of $50,000 from the Sarah Potter estate. She was the prison angel when she met Tripp. Through her influence Governor Douglas granted him a pardon two months ago.

Owing to the difference in age, strenuous efforts have been made by Mrs. Chadwick's relatives to break the match, but without success.

Mrs. Chadwick has been personally acquainted with Tripp only a short time. She and his mother were playmates together, and it was the granting of a mother's dying wish to aid her boy that first brought Tripp to her notice.

When Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Tripp, parents of George Tripp, were about to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary a year ago, Mrs. Chadwick received one of the invitations to attend. On the day of the celebration Mrs. Tripp was taken ill, and died two weeks later.

At that time George Tripp was in Charlestown prison, and his mother begged her friend to use her efforts in his behalf, and, if possible, to have him pardoned.

Mrs. Chadwick promised, and went to see Governor Douglas, who granted a pardon. Upon gaining his liberty, Tripp went to Mrs. Chadwick to thank her for his freedom. A friendship that ripened into a stronger affection arose between them.

POWDER IN WOOD BLEW HER THROUGH ADOOR

JERSEY SHORE, Pa., July 13.—Powder hidden in a stick of wood exploded in the stove in the home of Mrs. William Bailey, near Anties Fort, last evening, tearing the stove to pieces, scattering fire about and throwing Mrs. Bailey through a door into the next room.

Whether the explosion was the result of an attempt upon her life, or an accident, is not known. The powder was taken from a stone quarry near her home.

The end of the kitchen was torn out, and Mrs. Bailey's clothing and the house were set on fire. Neighbors found her unconscious, and extinguished the flames.

Yellow was the chosen color for very delightful bridal tea given recently for a June bride. So many yellow candles in crystal candelabra lighted the room, yellow roses ran riot in vases, and wall pockets on window and ledges, plate rails, book cases, swung in the doorways of yellow bords. An immense basket of roses and ferns, with a white center, filled the center of the table. Outside this basket was a der of individual crystal candles with yellow tapers and small hearts were attached to the The bonbons were yellow heart-shaped. At another bridal tea the plat cards were bride filled with white roses painted from water-color paper.

NOBLENEN WORKS IN KITCHEN TO GAIN GIRL'S LOVE

ATLANTIC CITY, July 13.—A young Ceylon nobleman has been discovered working as a chef, preparing Indian dishes at one of the big hotels. His father, who is over ninety years old, wealthy and of high caste, married two years ago a Ceylon maiden of nineteen, and this, together with the fact that the young nobleman is smitten with a pretty American girl, whom he met when in India, has induced him to leave a life of luxury in his native land.

He followed the young woman, whose name he guards, to this country after his father's marriage, and intends to become naturalized, earn enough money to support her and ask for her hand.

His name is Wejay Suriya Archigay Don Serlavardena Bundar. Only the last three names are individual, the first three constituting his title and indicating his high caste. He has abbreviated it to D. S. Bundar, and his fellow workmen call him "Billy" Bundar. He can speak four languages fluently.

When he ran away, two years ago, at the age of nineteen, he had a large sum of money, but found himself penniless soon after he arrived in this country. He was too proud to ask assistance from home, and determined to earn his living. He applied for a position as waiter and, having suggested the Indian dishes, called "Curries," was made chef.

The boy's father is Subashighe Bundar, an extensive owner of coconut farms, "Genny" grass farms, cinnamon gardens and dairies in Ceylon.

SAYS RICH MAN IS NOT FIT TO MARRY

McKEESPORT, Pa., July 13.—"I ever promised to become the wife of Dr. W. W. Campbell, I have no knowledge whatever of it."

This is a part of the answer of Mrs. Breitenreiter, filed today, in the $25,000 breach of promise suit of Dr. Campbell. It is alleged by Dr. Campbell, who is an exponent of osteopathy and resided for a short time at the Breitenreiter home, that he and Mrs. Breitenreiter became engaged on May 4, 1904.

In her answer Mrs. Breitenreiter says: "Since the alleged promise to marry, the defendant has learned that the plaintiff is a man of dissolute habits and a heavy drinker. The defendant has further learned that plaintiff has

ED. CORRIGAN WINS BIG PILE

CHICAGO, July 12.—Ed Corrigan, master of Hawthorne, promoter of the American Turf Association and owner of a racing stable of nearly 200 horses, made one of the biggest "killings" of the year Tuesday in Chicago on the victory of Western Duke, Gold Way and John Carroll, all winners at Latonia. Corrigan handed out $6000 to commissioners here to back Western Duke. This horse was formerly owned by Corrigan, and he may still have a big interest in him, but when Johnny Mayberry severed his connection with C. R. Ellison he took a number of Corrigan's horses to Latonia to race, and since then they have been running in Mayberry's name.

"I placed $6,000 for Corrigan," said a well-known bookmaker. "I made two $2,000 wagers and four $500 bets on Western Duke alone at average odds, which would figure better than 7 to 5, or, to be exact, will be $145 to $100, thereby cleaning up $3,700."

Corrigan also backed Gold Way, another colt of his which is being trained by Bob Smith. Gold Way is a California two-year-old, by Goldfinch-Waitaway. He was backed from 4 to 1 to 7 to 2, and, like Western Duke, won easily. In the last race of the day at Latonia Corrigan sent in a big commission on John Carroll, but got a short price for his money. The best price laid in the ring was 9 to 20. The colt, which is a son of Ornament, galloped home.

TACOMA TEAM FIT FOR DOCTOR

TACOMA, Wash., July 12.—Portland was outplayed at every stage of the game yesterday. The visitors, however, were badly shot to pieces. Schlafers wrist was so sore he could not do himself justice. McLean's finger was broken open and Van Buren was called in behind the bat. Portland insisted on having the game called at the end of the seventh, but Ray decided it was light enough to continue. Keefe was in fine form, for the second time in five days shutting out the opposing team. Two errors, a pass and Nordyke's double scored Tacoma's first pair. A pass, sacrifice, Lynch's two-bagger and squeeze play brought in two more. The last runs were scored on three singles, a passed ball, a stolen base and a base on balls. Attendance, 800. Score:

VARIED TRIP IN SAILING YACHT

BERTOWN, N. Y., July 12.—James Mace, E. R. Parsons and Charles M. O'Connell are now between the islands in a thirty-five-foot yacht, in which they have traveled approximately 5,000 miles. They left by way of the drainage canal over 15. The trip down the Mississippi consumed two months.

New Orleans they went to Florida where they spent the latter part of their trip. They then came up the Atlantic coast, and arriving at New York a month ago started up the Hudson. A Naphtha launch towed them from New York to Oswego. The trio has many exciting adventures and hair-raising escapes and the men expect to home between August 1 and 15.

WEST OAKLAND CLUB PLANS BOXING BOUTS

Brown vs Francks in Return Match.

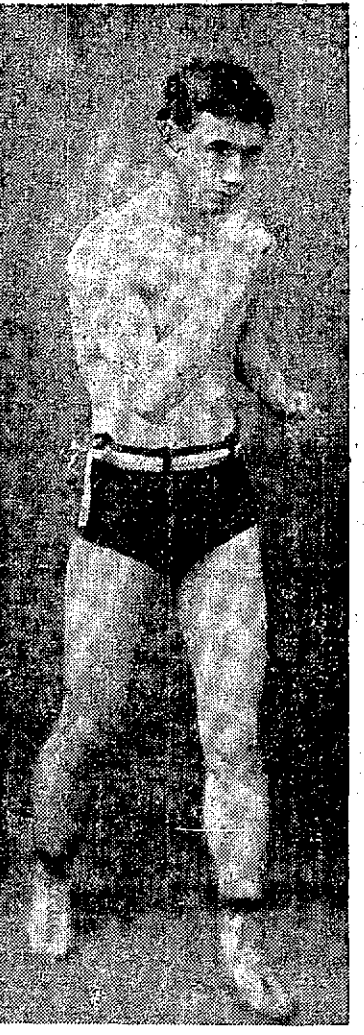

Next Tuesday evening the July show of the West Oakland Club will be given, and a fair program of four-round bouts has been arranged. In all there will be six contests.

The ring warmer will be furnished by Kid Bosco of Oakland and Kid Leon of the West Oakland Club. They meet at 150 pounds.

Then will come Young Gauley of the West Oakland Club, and Kid Lavigne of North Oakland. They are required to weigh 115 pounds. Gauley has appeared at a number of shows given under the auspices of the West Oakland Club, and will be heavily backed to defeat Lavigne.

Mat Foley of the Eureka Club, and Kid Sharkey of the Oakland Wheelmen will meet at 125 pounds. Both have the reputation of being mixers. Hop Lee, who is not a Chinaman, will meet Kid Lewis at 125 pounds. Both have appeared at the West Oakland Club before and have given satisfaction.

A return match has been made between Loren Brown of the Reliance Club and Kid Francks of the West Oakland Club. They meet at 125 pounds. This pair met at the last show of the club and the judges decided a draw, although Brown had apparently the best of it. This time Brown declares he will silence his opponent with a knockout punch.

WEIGHT OF FIGHTERS

Britt 136 lbs.

Sullivan 135 lbs.

Required 133 lbs.

"If Kid Sullivan is big enough to take on Battling Nelson, he has nothing to fear from Jimmy Britt," said a well-known sport last night, when the point was being discussed about the weight of Britt and the heft of Sullivan, whom he meets on the 21.

The impression had got out that Sullivan would not be as heavy by four or five pounds as Britt, but, considering the weight Sullivan has done for opponents in the past, what he weighs at the present time and what he says he will weigh when he enters the ring, there is no reason to believe that Britt will have it on the Kid as to the heft end of the argument.

Young Corbett is known to weigh as much as 140 pounds and more when boxing in the East and Sullivan fought the Denver lad ten stiff rounds at Baltimore.

Eddie Hanlon is within a pound or two as heavy as James Edward, and Sullivan hooked up with him at Baltimore in a contest that "Cute" remembers to this day.

There is not much to choose between Britt and Nelson as to weight and the Nelson-Sullivan contest last month is still fresh in the minds of local followers of the game.

When Jimmy Britt weighs in at 6 o'clock on the evening of the 21, he must be at 133 pounds or under it. He will eat and drink but little between that time and the scrap so he can hardly, with any degree of common pugilistic sense, take on more than one and a half pounds, which will bring him into the ring at about 134½.

Sullivan weighed yesterday 135 pounds after the road work, and Al Herford says his protegee will not "hit" the weight until the day of the contest. He will have Sullivan only a few ounces under weight and when the Kid enters the ring he will be perhaps a half pound lighter than Britt.

Britt last evening tipped the scales at 136 pounds.

Sullivan is a thick fellow and has a powerful chest and shoulders, which give him unusual weight for a little man.

TRYOUT WEEK FOR NEW UMPIRES

A new umpire was tried out in the Oakland-Los Angeles game across the bay yesterday afternoon. He was Cal McVey, who used to be a star performer with the Cincinnati Reds in years gone by.

McVey petitioned President Bert for a chance to hold the indicator, so yesterday he was given a tryout, and in the minds of many fans, failed to make good. He was too slow for the game, and failed to get on top of many of the plays. He made no attempt to hurry the game along, and, on the other hand, seemed to delay it by his own slow actions.

"Bull" Perrine is having a little vacation at the expense of the league, and President Bert announces that there will be a new umpire for every game this week.

SAYS HE KISSED THE SERVANTS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—Elizabeth A. Fonda, who resided with her husband, Walter G. Fonda, at 3710 Sacramento street, left him in last February and went to Los Angeles, where she sued for a divorce. This suit has been transferred to San Francisco for trial. One of her allegations is that she could not keep good-looking servant girls any considerable time, as Fonda tried to kiss them, and she says that he was also too demonstrative with her lady friends. These allegations are denied by Fonda's mother and sisters, and also by Mrs. Emma Reichel, who was employed as a servant in the house for two and a half years. Fonda states that his wife kept her dissipated brother, Kennedy Park, in their home against his wish.

Mrs. Fonda complained that her husband corresponded with another woman for years after their marriage, and Fonda explains that this woman was a person whom he had never seen and with whom as a boyish prank he began a correspondence before his marriage. He stopped writing to her eight years ago.

WILL DO BATTLE FOR WELTER-WEIGHT TITLE

Plenty of Action When Pair Meet.

Next Wednesday evening George Peterson, a recent graduate from the amateur ranks, will meet Buddy Ryan at Colma for the welterweight championship of the world.

Peterson recently defeated Jack Clancy, who is the champion of England, and Ryan has long held the welterweight title in America, hence the battle next Wednesday evening will be a wicked one.

Peterson is doing his preparatory work at Croll's Gardens in Alameda, and will be in the pink of condition.

Ryan has the reputation of being more of a fighter than a boxer, and Peterson, too, always has a desire to slug when in the ring, so the meeting between this pair should bring forth plenty of action.

Ryan is working out at the beach near the Cliff House. He has as a sparring partner, George Herberts, and their performances are daily witnessed by a good-sized crowd of fight fans.

RYAN WANTS TO FIGHT HART

ST. JOSEPH, July 12.—Tommy Ryan, middle-weight champion of the world, has a feeling deep in his heart that he can whip Marvin Hart, who is now claiming the heavy-weight title. Ryan says so, too, without reservation.

How would the people like to see a 145-pound champion of the world? asked Ryan. "It will take just another thought and I will challenge Hart for a fight. I can be ready within a week. I am certain I can put him out in a six-round bout or a finish fight. In 1915 Tom Sawyer won the heavy-weight championship, and he wasn't any bigger than I am now. I could win it if I wanted to, and I think I might as well."

"Marvin Hart, champion of the world, a fine champion. He is a great, big, clumsy fellow, who can't get out of his own way. I'd cut him to ribbons. Hart looks pretty soft to me, and if the public wants the match I am willing to battle for the glory."

Next Wednesday evening George Peterson, a recent graduate from the amateur ranks, will meet Buddy Ryan at Colma for the welterweight championship of the world.

"BOOKIES" UP NORTH IN TRUST

PORTLAND, July 12.—Much local as well as outside interest is manifested in the bookmaking for the coming race meet at the Irvington race track, which will begin July 22. It is understood that Hughes Jones of San Francisco is seeking to have the control of the bookmaking at the meet and is anxious to shut out all other betting.

Local men threaten to kill the races if they are shut out from making book, but their opponents declare that the local men are merely gamblers and will not be allowed to cut in.

A. R. Diamond, president of the Multnomah Fair Association, when asked what the decision would be as to syndicate betting or open books for all, said: "The matter has not been settled yet and will not be until the middle of next week, so I cannot say what the result will be yet."

MINING MAN IS REPORTED MISSING

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—John H. Smith, a mining man of Portland, who is well known in the mining camps of Nevada, has been missing from the Palace Hotel for some days, and his partner H. S. Henson, also of Portland, is bending every energy to establish his whereabouts. Smith and Henson are interested in various mining properties in Nevada and have been spending the greater part of their time during the past several months in the Nevada mining camps.

Smith arrived here from Reno on June 30 and engaged a room at the Palace Hotel, but all traces of him have been lost since the day of his arrival. Telegrams sent by Henson to his partner at the Palace Hotel brought no reply, so Henson came down from Reno on Friday last to investigate matters. He found that the telegrams and mail that had come for Smith were undelivered and that Smith's room at the Palace was now occupied. After searching the town for the missing man for several days he reported the matter to the police and then returned to Reno.

Smith is described as short and slender, 37 years of age, with dark complexion, gray hair and mustache, and weighing about 120 pounds.

MISS BARRYMORE TO BE A BRIDE

NEW YORK, July 12.—A special to the Herald from London says: Ethel Barrymore confirms the report of her engagement to Captain John Graham. Graham was formerly in the Coldstream Guards and for more than five years was on the staff of Lord Minto, Governor-General of Canada. Miss Barrymore and her fiance met for the first time about eight years ago, during her second visit to England. No date has yet been set for the marriage, but it will take place during the latter part of next winter or early in the spring. At present her idea is for the wedding to take place in America. Lionel Barrymore, the eldest brother, will probably give the bride away on that occasion.

DAVIS MAKES 'EM PLAY FAST

SEATTLE, July 12.—Roach, knocked down Wilson's hit in the third inning, but he could not field the ball. When he started after Cochrane's bunt a moment later he slipped on a piece of soft ground and fell. Henley sacrificed, and with the Seattle infield playing up to choke a runner, Spencer singled at Texas leaguer just over the infield, and two runs came in. That was all the scoring done yesterday.

Seattle's four hits off Henley came so badly scattered that they did no harm. Gochbauer criticized one of Umpire Davis' decisions, and he was chased on the ground. Hildebrand, arrested at short and Nick Williams was sent to the outfield. While the game was without special features, it cut half an hour off the record of the past few weeks. Score:

TREPOFF MARKED

Russian Terrorists Declare That He Must Die.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 13.—The resignation of M. Boulgan as Minister of the Interior is expected daily. General Trepoft, the Assistant Minister of the Interior, probably will be his successor.

The terrorists have recently renewed their warnings against General Trepoft with ominous persistence. The general is in constant receipt of letters signed by the executive committee of the fighting organization, informing him that his hour has come. A remarkable feature of all the communications is that the writers take pains to say that no safeguards will avail to avert his impending doom. At the same time they tell him they need not be afraid to go abroad in the streets. They add:

"Your sentence will be executed in your own room. You will die in your bed."

The terrorists seem to take pride in issuing a challenge involving a demonstration of their power and resources to penetrate the armor of the police.

Moreover, General Trepoft knows enough of the desperation of the organization to firmly believe that the terrorists are able to execute their threat. He makes no concealment of the fact that he expects to be killed, but his nerve is unshaken. "I will at least die at the post of duty," he says.

Privately General Trepoft takes a gloomy view of the future of the autocracy in which he believes. "I will at least die at the post of duty," he says.

The general is confident that if given untrammelled power he could restore the old status quo in a year, but the present vacillating policy he thinks will end only in ruin. A representative assembly, no matter what its initial character will be, he is convinced will soon be transformed into a constituent assembly which will give the death blow to absolutism.

"Colonel E. X. Booser gave himself away in great style the other night," "How so?"

"After proposing a toast at a W. C. T. U. dinner he started to blow the foam off a glass of water."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

POWDER WORKS WIN CASE

WILL NOT HAVE TO PAY THE INCREASE IN TAXES.

MARTINEZ, July 13.—In the suit of the California Powder Works against Contra Costa county for the collection of taxes paid under protest, the powder company claiming the assessment was exorbitant, Judge Wells of the Superior Court has rendered a decision giving judgment for the powder company. The judgment was for $9725.48, with interest of 7 per cent from November 30, 1903.

When the assessment rolls for Contra Costa county were turned over to the Superior court, sitting as a Board of Equalization, in July, 1903, the property of the California Powder Works was assessed at $50,000. On July 13, 1903, John Bermingham Sr. and his son, John Bermingham Jr., appeared before the Equalizers by request, and under oath the older Bermingham testified that his property had been assessed to its full value and that any greater assessment would be exorbitant.

The Berminghams were excused from further meetings with the Board, and it was believed the incident had been closed, but on July 20th the Equalizers arbitrarily increased the assessment on the property, raising the assessment on the machinery from $35,000 to $52,585, and on the land from $15,000 to $17,585, a total increase of $32,585, or an increase in the amount of taxes that would result, according to the fiscal tax rate, of $9725.48.

Having no immediate way of securing relief, the California Powder Works paid taxes in accordance with the increased assessment, and on July 13th paid the real $9725.48 under protest. Legal proceedings were then instituted for the recovery of the money, and since then the case has been bitterly contested. In rendering the decision today, Judge Wells said: "From such a state of facts the only possible conclusion is that the property was assessed fairly and in accordance with law, and that the increase was excessive and unjust, and was made arbitrarily and not fraudulently, through malice and ill will."

Continuing, Judge Wells says the arbitrary increase of the assessment is illegal, unjust, and in violation of the Constitution of the State. The plaintiff is given judgment for the money paid, and Contra Costa county will have to refund to the California Powder Works the money which it has held for two years past.

MEETING POSTPONED.

Owing to a mutual agreement between those who are interested in the formation of El Camino Real, the meeting for permanent organization was postponed from last night until two weeks from that time.

Mayor Mott is one of the prime movers in El Camino Real and hopes to form a strong organization which will operate in conjunction with the State organization in securing better roads.

Good roads and highways in rural districts and clean streets in municipalities is the chief work of the clubs, and already there are many of them formed in the State.

Locally the El Camino Real will take up the problem of clean streets in Oakland and promises to have a large membership.

MONEY SHORT

Why Muravieff Did Not Want to Be Peace
Envoy.

PARIS, July 13.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Echo de Paris states that the designation of M. Muravieff to head the Russian peace mission was based partly on the state of his health and partly on the fact that his allowance for expenses to cover the period of his sojourn in America was only 150,000 roubles, which amount he considered insufficient owing to the great cost of living in the United States.

M. Witte twice refused to become the successor of M. Muravieff on the mission on the ground that he did not wish to be a mere figurehead in the transmission to Emperor Nicholas of the peace terms offered by Japan.

His selection therefore cannot but be taken to mean that the Emperor has yielded to his insistence that real powers plenipotentiary be conferred upon Russia's principal representative on the peace mission.

SCHOOL SYSTEM IN CANADA

PORTLAND, Me., July 13.—Today will see the close of the seventy-fifth annual convention of the American Institute of Instruction. The formal program will be completed this evening with a general session, at which addresses will be made by President Carroll D. Wright of Clark College and Robert E. Mills of Vassar College.

There were the sub-conventions in session today in addition to the general convention. The final session, including the election of officers, was transacted at the general session. Several addresses were made. E. W. Arthy, Superintendent of Schools at Montreal, read a paper on "The Conditions of Protestant Education in the Province of Quebec."

He spoke of the remarkable fusion of the British and the French, the Protestant and the Roman Catholic population, two races with different languages, creeds, and ideals, and described it as the particular result of the judicious school education. The school system of the province is a dual one.

Beverly Letcher of Berkeley Takes a Dose of Poison.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—A painful scene was enacted in the Emergency Hospital last night when the aged mother of Beverly Letcher, a well known clubman and chief loan clerk of the San Francisco Savings Bank, with a fearful face raised heavenward implored the Creator to save her son from death. Letcher, who is well known in Berkeley, was discovered unconscious in a room in the Higgins Hotel, on O'Farrell street, shortly after 7 o'clock last evening. He was apparently suffering from opium poisoning, and it being realized that immediate medical assistance was necessary, the young man was hurried to the hospital. There Dr. O. S. Kuchel worked over the patient for several hours without satisfactory results, and at midnight it was not expected that Letcher would recover.

It is believed that Letcher took poison with suicidal intent after a quarrel with Marian Pennington, who conducts a rooming-house at 211 Grant avenue, and with whom he had been living. Shortly after Letcher was taken to the hospital the Pennington woman called there and represented herself as his sister. Her identity soon became known, and she was finally turned over to Detectives Wren and Reynolds, to whom she related her story of her relations with Letcher.

According to her statement she had been with Letcher for three years. Three days ago they quarreled and she informed her lover that she was tired of him and proposed to leave him. Letcher implored her not to leave him and she agreed to meet him at luncheon on Tuesday. During the meal the Pennington woman told Letcher that she did not want to see him again, to which declaration he replied, "If you do not return to me I will be dead tomorrow night."

Apparently Letcher tried hard to keep his word, Tuesday, shortly before midnight he engaged a room at the Higgins Hotel, and that was the last seen of him until last evening. A few minutes after 7 o'clock Manager Huey of the hotel, suspecting that something was wrong, forced the door of Letcher's room and found the lodger unconscious. Dr. W. H. Hennessey was summoned and he pronounced the case one of opium poisoning and advised the landlord to send the patient to the hospital.

When it was determined later in the evening that Letcher's chances of recovery were very small his brother and his aged mother, who live in San Rafael, were summoned to his bedside. The grief-stricken mother, bowed by her infirmities, made a most pathetic picture as she knelt by the side of her son and begged piteously for his life, while the dying man's misgivings about his expected fate were with her face turned from the weeping parent.

During the evening a number of Letcher's club friends called at the hotel and expressed great regret at the rash act he had committed. The mother and brother of the dying man remained at the hospital during the night.

Letcher is 43 years of age. His wife died several years ago, leaving a young son, who is now in Honolulu. He is a director of the North Shore Road and the Mill Valley and Mt. Tamalpais Railway, in both of which is a stockholder. He is said that Letcher has been drinking heavily for some time.

COMMENCE WORK ON MERRITT HOSPITAL

W. T. Veitch & Brother will commence the erection of the first building of the Samuel Merritt Hospital, which will be located on the site of the old Pacific Theological Seminary on Thirty-fourth street, between Hawthorne avenue and Dwinelle street.

Application was made at the office of the Building Inspector for permission to begin the work, and the excavations will be made in a few days for the foundations.

The plans for the first hospital building, which will be 120 by 45 feet in size, have been prepared by the architectural firm of Kendall, Taylor & Stevens. The specifications provide that the building shall cost $50,000. It will be built on the pavilion plan, so that when the first structure is completed others may be added on as they become necessary.

The Merritt Hospital was endowed by late Samuel Merritt. The fund for the erection of the building, which is about $400,000, is in the hands of the board of trustees.

The location of this hospital is one of the best in the city, as it is directly in the path of the current of the ocean air that comes through the Golden Gate. The land is also elevated and provides a good view of the city and San Francisco bay. The lot on which the building will stand is 465 by 495 feet in size.

ENGLAND WILLING

Will Take Part in Conference Proposed By Roosevelt.

LONDON, July 13.—In the House of Commons today Mr. Robertson asked Premier Balfour whether there had been any further representations in regard to the international conference proposed by President Roosevelt, and whether the government was prepared to agree to the President's proposal to include in the subjects for discussion the question for making private property not contraband of war free from capture or destruction.

Mr. Balfour replied that the government cordially welcomed the proposal of President Roosevelt, but Great Britain in common with other nations, reserved the right of considering what should be submitted to the conference.

The Premier added that there had not been any further negotiations in the subject.

CITIZEN HAS HOT TIME WITH LEVI MORAN

Well Known Character of Berkeley on Trail of Acting Head of Police Department.

BERKELEY, July 13.—These are strenuous days for Levi Moran, chief deputy marshal in charge of the police department while Marshal Vollmer is away. Moran's latest victim is John Boyd, a well known character of Berkeley, who is being prosecuted for the "extraordinary conduct" of Deputy Levi Moran in refusing to protect the beautiful public fountain in the town plaza from the acts of a filthy man, Mr. Boyd, a well known citizen of the University town, today consulted with the town attorney in an endeavor to ascertain if the police department cannot be compelled to protect the public property of the town from those who have no conception of the proper uses to which such property should be put.

WHIST TOURNAMENT OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Fruitvale Club Party is Given to Hold Interest-Young at Elm-hurst.

FRUITVALE, July 13.—The local whist club gave its monthly tournament last night at St. Elizabeth's Hall on Bay avenue. A large crowd was present, most of them being Catholics. The money raised is being devoted to preparing to entertain the delegates from the German Catholic churches of the State at the annual convention next September. The meetings are to be held in Fruitvale and the communications here will have entire charge of caring for the visitors. By means of monthly parties over $100 has already been raised, and as much more is looked for before the time when it will be needed.

REAL ESTATE. The Western Pacific Company is buying up a lot of land around Fruitvale and Elmhurst, these days. On Monday forty-three lots in Fruitvale were sold to this company and five acres of land on the Arroyo Bigo tract, near this place.

PROFESSOR MOSES SAYS MISTAKE WAS MADE

University Man Explains His Idea About Proper Wage of a Laboring Man.

BERKELEY, July 13.—A great deal of discussion has resulted from Professor Bernard Moses' reported statement at the Tatt banquet held in San Francisco recently to the effect that if America is to compete for trade of the world the wages of American laborers must come down.

Professor Moses has issued the following explanation of the report: "The statement purported to have been made by me in private conversation with Senator Patterson at the Tatt banquet is evidently a misquotation. Anybody knows that there may be high wages and yet such efficiency on the part of laborers that they may successfully compete with a system of production when the wages are much lower. The reason of this, of course, is that the highly paid labor may be, relative to the wages paid, more efficient than the labor with low wages. This has, however, nothing to do with the other question as to whether wages and standard of living in this country must tend to become equalized with those of other countries. "Hitherto the abundant resources of this country and certain legislative restrictions have made it possible for us to

BURIED BONNIE MONEY LASSIES

Treasure Brought Scotch Folk to Light by Workmen. Have Day at University.

SAN LEANDRO, July 13.—Buried treasure was found a few days ago by the men excavating for the foundations of the new building of the Luso-American Mercantile Company. About a dozen coins in all came to light. They were nearly all coppers, except a Chilian half dollar. The dates borne by the relics are 1868 and before.

BOOKS DONATED. A gift of fourteen new books was made to the San Leandro Free Library yesterday by George Ulrich of this place. The volumes comprise works of fiction, essays and history. The shelves now in use will soon be overcrowded by the generosity of the friends of the institution and a new case is being planned. Following are the titles of the books given yesterday by Mr. Ulrich: "Camp Fires of Napoleon," "Noted Women of Europe and America," "Uncle Scipio," "Dr. King's Houses," "The Road to Paris," "American Orations," "Phantom Rickshaw," Fox's "Book of Martyrs," "Schonberg Cotta Family," "Bacon's Essays," "Life of Logan," "McClellan's Own Story," "The Modern British Essayists" (two volumes).

WOMAN ACCUSES

Has Neighbor Hauled Into Justice Court.

HAYWARDS, July 13.—A dispute over the use of a building between Anna Jacinto da Terra of this place and Antonio Sebastiano, led the participants into the courts yesterday morning. The lady in the case had Sebastiano arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace. She alleged that he had used vulgar expressions in the effort to convince her of his right to the occupancy of certain farm buildings belonging to her. He declared that he had rented them from her along with the rest of the farm he occupies.

IMPROVEMENTS. It has been announced by Foreman Maguire of the telephone company that the work of the line men is completed in town the new style of 'phones will be installed in Haywards. At present when a subscriber wants a number he has to ring the magneto bell by hand to call the attention of the operator. By the "express service" this will be made unnecessary.

As announced at first, the people would have to wait until fifty new subscribers took telephones before the change was made. Though there have been no new ones, the company has decided to install the improved system anyway. The residents are grateful for the concession.

NEW SYSTEM. Ed Warren of the San Lorenzo Water Company has issued the statement that an entirely new pumping system about to be installed by the directors at the Mount Eden plant. The air compressor broke down last week, and is still in a feeble condition. A new one has been ordered and will be installed as soon as it arrives. A new boiler was put in two weeks ago. When the new system is installed, it will be isolated from the present one, and the two will be used alternately.

Since the breakdown Sunday, the plant has been able to get a little ahead of the demand. There are now 500,000 gallons of water in the huge 500,000-gallon reservoir back of the plant. This supply will be sufficient to last two days or more if the machinery breaks again.

NOTES OF INTEREST. J. Singer, late of this place, who helped himself to $35 belonging to Mrs. Kurz and decamped last week, has sent back the keys of the cash drawer and gambling machine by mail from San Francisco. He had accidentally taken them with him in his flight. No money accompanied the keys.

PERSONALS. L. Spofford, the second settler in Haywards, is in town again after an absence of more than forty years. He has found a number of old friends here, and is busy renewing old acquaintanceships. He first came to the place in 1850, as the ward of William Dutton Hayward, the founder of the town. To Mr. Spofford belongs the honor of guiding the first plough.

ADOPT SARCASTIC RESOLUTIONS

Germania Gesangs Verein of Alameda Angry at Action of Chairman C. R. Smith.

ALAMEDA, July 13.—At a regular meeting of the Germania Gesangs Verein of this city resolutions were passed condemning the action of C. R. Smith, chairman of the Fourth of July committee, who, it is stated, contrary to previous arrangements excluded the members of the Gesangs Verein and some of the members of the Old Men's Singing Club from the grand stand at the tidal canal on the night of the Fourth.

There have been no mishaps with the new machinery, though considerable money time has been used up than was originally expected. When the new engine is in working order, the electric light plant will again take orders for day power. Owing to lack of facilities at the generating station the City Electric will be forced to discontinue taking new orders, as they could not be filled.
